

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, 1/5/2020

1/2/20..Gila Domina's daughter Ruth and hubby Jim Smith came to surprise her mother Thursday afternoon. Gila happened to be out doing some grocery shopping when they arrived, I did happen to know where she was as she had invited me to come along with her, but I had been earlier in the week. During the late afternoon, one of the smoke/carbon-monoxide detectors went off, which was a deafening sound. Jim had no idea what to do so called 911 and it was not long the town was filled with sirens and flashing lights. The fire truck was parked in front of the house next door, and other vehicles on both sides of the street, the Enosburg Ambulance was parked in front of our house. Luckily there was no tragedy just a defect in the detector, Gila had them all replaced the following day.

1/2..Most of us have taken down our wreaths and unplugged the park-tree, and the wreaths hanging around the town have been taken down. It really looked festive for the Christmas holiday. All the wonderful events that happened and many families went out of town for the holiday and some came here to share the holiday. What ever you did or didn't do, I hope it was a blessed time for you and yours.

1/3.. Our First Friday of the Month was held at the Conference Room at the Public Safety Building and there was a good turn out and that was pleasing to Judith Derencourt that puts this all together for the local Senior Citizens. Thanks to all the Volunteers that help set up the tables, serve the meal and clean up after. This has become very enjoyable to many and so appreciated by the delicious Soup, breads that are sent down by Jay Peak and to Joey Buttendorf for her delicious casseroles. Thanks to all for helping and donations!!
