

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, OCTOBER 27, 2024

10/21..Our monthly Senior Dinner was prepared by Parma Jewett and all volunteers that help out serving the meal. This month Parma prepared a Boiled Dinner and homemade rolls and dessert of a white cake with maple frosting. Our Sincere Thanks to all, It was well attended and we had a surprise visitor Sandy Baddorf stop in to say Hi to us and said she was on her way to visit Friends while here in Town. Lois Babbitt and her sister Doris were absent, they had planned on going for a Foliage ride up near Lake Willoughby seeing it was such a nice day. They went and she told me the foliage was nice but as they drove into their driveway at home, their maple trees were as gorgeous as any that they had seen on their ride, a beautiful red. Maggie Elkins also shared her foliage story with me, as she can see the Cemetery Hill up behind me from her front porch. She was watching the leaves as they were coming down slowly with the wind, it was like the tree was moving and the leaves were like a golden halo around the tree, absolutely beautiful. She wishes she had taken a video of it. The trees here in the Village have just about all lost there leaves and our lawn, the neighbors lawn and sidewalk were deep in leaves, Wednesday after Penny got home from work she started the lawn mower and started mulching, I helped pick them up as she wanted them for her garden, I had 3 wheelbarrows full for her. Thursday morning you would not believe we had done anything, as the lawn was once again covered and the sidewalk. Saturday afternoon to cold to start a lawn mower and the wind was so brisk. Maybe the leaves will be dry when it warms up later this week, to mulch more of them, wait and see.

10/26. Veronica had made plans to come over to go out for a Birthday breakfast at Bernies. Yes, Penny and the Birthday Mom met Veronica for our 10:30 breakfast, it was delicious!! Then I visited the Lil Crafty Gift shop before returning home. Veronica had made plans to be at the Center Of Arts for two hours, 12-2. I needed my nap and went up to be with Veronica at 1:30. It had been a quiet afternoon there at the Art Center. She brought me home at 2:20 p.m. and we were meant by my Nephew and his. Special Lady Sue Allen. That turned out nicely as they will be leaving St. Albans soon to their new home in Hickory, N.C. We had a wonderful afternoon of visiting, memories and laughs.

10/27. Our Church Service was prepared and Officiated by Pastor John Gorton, and Scripture readings by Sandy Bowman and Vivian Elbe. Lois Lumbrá was pleasantly surprised today when the Church Family had signed a Birthday Card for her and then they all sang Happy Birthday. It sure was a surprise and I Sincerely Thank You All, very much Appreciated..Love You All. LL
The Skate and Bike Event held at the Rec Center today with Chicken BBQ, was held inspite of the cold day. Penny and I went up to get the BBQ'd chicken, which was delicious. The Children were all having fun on the skate boards that were put up for them. Penny rode down to check out the Haunted Forest the 8th graders planned for an early Halloween Event. Just hope everyone had a fun time, to scary for me. This Sunday afternoon there is a Pumpkin Carving and Pot-Luck meal at the Art Center at 4 p.m. That sounds like a lot of fun..I might check it out, i love seeing all the Jack-o-lanterns. Hi, I am back, I had Penny take me up to watch the Jack-o-lanterns being made. I went from table to table watching the parents help their child with making a jack-o-lantern they saw in a picture they wanted. Melissa Habrman said to be sure and Thank Hartmanns and Beaver Meadows for donating pumpkins for this event. My News column is already quite long, as I wanted to mention a few of the Parents I got to talk with, Elliot Cluba and his daughters, Kyle & Sauni Lawyer and children, Zachary & Nicholas Elliott, Allison & Rose Witherspoon, Suzanne Dollois and children, Talia Roberts, Wesley Skidmore, Chi, and Marlene. It was a wonderful event and Pot-Luck which was enjoyed. Thanks for a wonderful Family time.

Happy Birthday to: Suzanne Peliletier 11/3; Marcel Begnoche 11/4; Roger Bennett 11/5; Barbara Hulbert 11/6; Dan Mallloy, Bobbi Jo Lumbra, Diane Gendron 11/7; Abby Dixon Boles 11/8.

Happy Anniversary to: Jim and Sheila Marshia 11/6.

I remember when day-light savings wasn't a thing. How time has changed, (change our clocks 11/3).  They say daylight savings time is such a great idea. I give it 6 months. What kind of key cannot open a door? A Tur-Key. What kind of weather does a turkey like? Fowl weather. . This is all and with Halloween this week, I will enjoy seeing all the little ones coming by accompanied by their parents, AND we are suppose to get a nice warm evening . Keep safe and happy..Love To You.
