

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, OCT. 6, 2019

The Freshman Reception was recently held at Enosburg High School and Thomas St. Onge from Montgomery was crowned King, Kayla Gervais from Bakersfield was crowned Queen, Devon Gleason of Enosburg crowned Prince, Allison Bowen from Montgomery crowned Princess. Congratulations to these four young adults, they all had a very nice evening.

10/4..The First Friday Senior Luncheon was held at the Town Hall this month. The Missisquoi River Band came to play for us and that was very nice and very enjoyable. We 14 senior members that came enjoyed the hot soup, breads from Jay Peaks Kitchen, salad and a delicious hot dish brought in by Joey Buttendorf and her Mom Wendy made us pumpkin cookies. Everything was so delicious, then a few of us take meals to our shut-ins. Thanks to all the volunteers that come to help serve, Allissa and daughter Chloe Hardy, Abby Dixon-Boles, Peg Doheny taking the place of Patti Perl, and Peg and Micky brought in fresh egg plant for anyone wanting some to take home. Thank –You, to all the Chefs, Volunteers and Musicians!!

My husband and I came home Tuesday from going to the Center and Walkers big kitty was in the yard as he had caught a chipmunk, and he played around with it for some time, AS CATS do. The Vallender's kitty saw what was going on and he crept up on the scene and very quickly took the chipmunk and ran back across the street. Sonny witnessed it all and thought it was rather funny.

This Coming Saturday October 12 will be our Rummage and Bake Sale at the United Methodist Church, AND we have had so many donations we WILL HAVE to get the TENT again this year. We have lots and lots of DVD's if anyone is interested, we open at 8 a.m. Right here near the Montgomery Village Park on Route 118.

October 13, There will be a Delicious Turkey Dinner at St. Isidore's Parish Hall starting at noon time. On Route 242..watch for the signs.

Therese Begnoche had a Family dinner at her home Saturday 10/5, each person bringing something to share. In attendance were John and Michelle Nozakoski from New Hampshire, and they picked their daughter Brenna up in Burlington at the UVM . Susan Begnoche Paradis from Bakersfield, her daughter Abigail and her Son William McMahan from St.Albans, Marcel and April Begnoche and daughter Kylie from Highgate, Carmen Scott, Brent Godin from town, Ralph and Cecile Demers have been up from Florida staying with their daughter Lise Gates and soon will be headed back where its warmer. Therese had everyone come together as her son Marcel and Family are moving to South Carolina and her sister Cecile back to Florida. They all enjoyed the dinner and visiting with each other.

Congratulations to our Town Athlete Elle Purrier, in all her accomplishments. Annie, we are all mighty proud of you.."YOU GO GIRL!!" Good Luck! !

On Sunday OCTOBER 13, the Friends of the Montgomery Town Library and The Montgomery Center for the ARTS will join forces to present "Her Majesty's Secret Circus" at the Grange (Town) Hall in Montgomery Center at 7:00 P.M. Tickets are available at the door or through Eventbrite. Maya and Brent McCoy are Agents Butterfly and Honeymoon the founding members of Vermont Vaudeville. This performance serves as a fund-raiser for these two community non-profits, proceeds from this event will help Friends of the Montgomery Library and the Montgomery Center for the Arts, both 501©(13) organizations, continue to present arts and humanities themed programming encourage the involvement of community members of all ages, and pay for the costs of facility improvements.

Happy Birthday to: Paul Fernald 10/14; Faith Reed 10/15; Saddle Smith 10/19.

Anniversary wishes to: Kevin and Karen Scheffler 10/14; Merle and Linda Van Gieson 10/17.

*What's similar between INK and a PIG? No, Idea . They both run out of a pen. What did the Ocean say to the beach? Nothing, it just waved. Have a good week folks.. M.L.T.A. (W.B.P.)