

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, OCT. 8, 2023

HELLO, IT HAS BEEN A WET SUNDAY, LOTS of rain and breezy bringing the leaves down. Our Sunday Service was prepared and officiated but John Gorton for the Montgomery United Methodist Church, Thank-You for bringing us all such a wonderful message, entitled "How Do We Become Righteous." Also the Historical Society and The Friends of Montgomery Library sponsored Speaker Howard Coffin to come with his Historical Presentation of the 1800 and Froze to death. I remember my husband mentioning there was a time in our History a year there was a frost in every month. Mr. Coffin came today October 8 to present that year being 1816. His presentation was well received with 60 plus in attendance. Thank-You so much!

Montgomery Center For The Arts had a wonderful gathering Friday night October 6, starting at 5 pm through 8. The people's Art Show is a free, non juried, uncensored exhibition celebrating all forms of creative diversity and imaginations. The exhibition is open to everyone and all entries will be exhibited. There are 48 Artists represented some from Montpelier, Glover, St.Albans, Burlington, Worcester, and throughout Franklin County. The show was created together by MCA Programmer & Director Melissa Haberman, curator M. Sebastian Araujo, and all hung up by Sebastian and Esther Sundell Lichti. Proceeds from this show will benefit the MCA General Operations Fund. The show runs from October 8 through October 22. Gallery hours are weekends Saturdays 12-4 and Sundays 1-4.

I had a surprise visitor Saturday coming by from Northern Canada, Susie Faller and her husband were down this way for a wedding. I do not have the correct spelling of her married name, she and the Faller Family lived in the big house next door to us several years ago. She up dated me on the family and they are all doing well, Susie has three grand children and growing up fast. She stayed only minutes as they were running a little late, but it was nice seeing her.

Happy Birthday to: Faith Reed 10/15; Sadie Smith 10/19; David Newton 10/20; Charlie Fachmann 10/21.

What do you call a large colorful pile of leaves? The great barrier leaf. #2, What do you give a pumpkin that is trying to quit smoking? A pumpkin Patch. #3 Did you hear about the tree that had to take time off in autumn? It was on paid leaf.*. This is all folks enjoy, M.L.T.A.
