

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, OCTOBER 9, 2022

Woke up to rain showers this morning, had to use my umbrella to go down to Church. John Gorton came up from Sheldon and filled in at the pulpit for us. His Church had a small Fall Festival in Sheldon Saturday and I went down to surprise them. It has been years since going down there, we used to visit Hoddie and Charlotte Soule when they lived in the house beside the Methodist Church. No, we did not get lost but sure was many changes. John is a Manager to the huge Food Shelf there in Sheldon.

Saturday forenoon Connie McFarland had made plans with her Son Raymond McFarland, and daughter Nancy Benson to come and give her a hand in defrosting her freezer. Also in attendance was daughter Patty and hubby Victor Rollings from Chazy, N.y. Connie had a few prepared meals completed in the freezer, she said I just put them in the oven and in no time I had a wonderful meal for all of us. It was a wonderful time with her Children.

Saturday Afternoon 10/8 the Memorial Service for Baldur (VAL) Schadinger was held at the Historical Society Pratt Hall where Family and Friends gathered for over three hours to share their memories. Val and his family made their home on Hazens Notch Road and Val became a ski instructor at Jay Peak starting in 1960's, he loved sports and liked being involved with snow boarding, cycling, anything outdoors, cross country skiing what ever it was to keep fit. The family was very much involved in the Community and loved gardening, Val 's off season specialty was building Rumford Fireplaces, Quite sure there are several in and around Montgomery that are still in use. The Committal Service was completed when His body was laid to rest at the Center Cemetery. The remaining years of his life were under the care of the Staff at "The Lady of The Meadow's" in Richford, the Schadinger Family came from Austria several years ago.

Happy Birthday to: Saddle Smith 10/19; David Newton 10/20; Charlie Fichman 10/21; Marijke Dollois 10/23.

Anniversary Wishes to..Merle and Linda Van Gieson 10/17.

I thought the dryer was shrinking my clothes. Turns out it was the refrigerator all along. What do you call a pony with a sore throat? A little hoarse. The sun is trying to peek out at us..getting late in the afternoon, had snow flurries on the higher elevations this weekend we saw it when we were coming home from Sheldon Saturday. Have a nice week.. M.L.T.A.. Please share you news with me , I appreciate it.
