

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOVEMBER 20, 2022

Our Church Service was planned by Merle Van Gieson and then it was officiated by him. His sermon was entitled, "The Power of Words." Thank You Merle, he took all the Bible messages and related them to us. A terrific sermon. This coming Sunday, November 27, John Gorton has planned an Advent Service for us and we get to decorate the Church Sanctuary. Just remember our Church Service starts at 8:45 a.m. Plan to come and join in with us as we decorate.

11/15.. The 500 Card Club met at the lovely home of Anita Woodward, the Club meets at noon time to start playing. Anita had prepared snacks for everyone to enjoy during the afternoon, help yourself. The ending high score went to Sue Cherrier, second high was Stacy Gregoire, she was a sub for Denise Baker, most horses Anita W; low score was Linda Van Gieson. There were lots of laughter and as usual lots of fun. The next meeting will be at the home of Connie McFarland on Dec. 13, starting at noon.

11/17. We got our first snow fall and it did cover over enough so that Granddad Joe Vallender was able to make a cute snowman for his Grandson Hudson Vallender. Hudson has a special like for a snowman and this new snowman is still upright as it has been cold enough for it. Suppose to have sunshine today 11/19 and perhaps it will have some melting going on. Yes, it did have a little melting, but with the new snow and cold coming in, it will have some new snow added to keep it up right and handsome.

Happy Birthday to: Cheryl Wisell, Uriel Agim 11/28; Benah Cluba 11/29; Natalie McGinley, Joanne Kane 12/1; Luke Scheffler 12/2; Lynne Drevik 12/3.

Quoted: Mirror, Mirror on the wall, It does not matter if I'm short or tall. When you look at me, don't judge me by my parts; The most important thing about me, is in my heart. M. L. T. A. Wishing Everyone a Happy Thanksgiving with Family and Friends. God Bless us all.

Chuckles: 1. What's the most musical part of a turkey? The Drumstick. 2. What do Thanksgiving and Halloween have in common? Halloween has goblins, Thanksgiving has Gobblers. Stay well, Stay Warm.
