

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOVEMBER 24,2024

Here we are the last Sunday of the month, and finally our Thanksgiving feast coming up this week. Sure sounds good. But about 30 senior citizens enjoyed a wonderful Thanksgiving dinner that was prepared by Parma Jewett on 11/18. It was delicious every bite. Thanks to all the ladies that come to help, serve and clean up. This week I have accompanied my dear Friend Sue Peters to Burlington and St. Albans. Each trip was very nice to be out together, Wednesday Sue had her companion Zeus come with us, he loves to ride and very well behaved.

Thursday was the Quilting Circle get together at the home of Sue Peters. I had another commitment, so was not at the Quilting Circle, and I missed doing my job for them..pressing their newly sewn strips getting them ready to make blocks. I heard it was a wonderful meeting. Got a lot of work done, had a show-N-Tell, and they will meet December 6 for a Christmas gathering at Bernie's. I was at a meeting of a different kind, Our Annual District Church Conference with our District Superintendent Jill C. Robinson, it is her job to make appointments with each Church to go over all the Reports of the Church Committees. This was our day to do just that, AND it's done for another year. HALLELUJAH !!

11/23..It has been a rainy day and snow on the higher elevations as some of the cars coming down off the hills have snow on them. Perhaps we might have snow here in the Village, by morning. The wind came up around 7:30 Saturday night and the rain turned to snow and it looked like a Blizzard coming in, it was wild, the temp was at 36 degrees. It quieted down turning the night, I thought it would be icy on the road but it wasn't, just to walk down to the Church Service. John Gorton came to officiate our Service with his sermon entitled "King Of Kings". This was Christ The King Sunday. Next Sunday, December 1, the beginning of the Advent Season. Today after Church Frank, Lyndol and Lila Elkins got the Christmas tree together which takes up a lot of time, I think they did it in a record breaking time today. Then we have other things to get out this week, so things will be a go next Sunday, Plus it's Communion Sunday. Also Today I had made a birthday Cake for John Gorton and Patrick Evans as they celebrated their Birthdays this month, so we enjoyed cake after Church.

Happy Birthday to: Natalie McGinley, Joanne Kane 12/1; Luke Scheffler 12/2; Lynn Drevik 12/3; Ethan Mercy, Micah Niles-Rascusin 12/5.

My laptop caught pneumonia.apparently because I left WINDOWS OPEN. 2 HORSES have a lower divorce rate because; they have a stable relationship. 3. 90% of bald people still own a comb; they just can't part with it. 4The word incorrectly is spelled incorrectly in every dictionary.  My Friend sent me these laugh lines, hope you have enjoyed them. (Note John used some of the laugh lines during our devotional time today) Bringing this to an end with lots of LOVE to All; and I wish you ALL A Blessed, Happy Thanksgiving Day!!!
