

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOV. 26, 2023

This has been a busy week here at my home, and having Penny home as schools were closed for the week. We went shopping earlier in the week to purchase our needs for our dinner and Penny made the dressing and stuffed the turkey with it, then after our dinner we were stuffed, so now we know how the turkey felt.

Penny's son David joined us for dinner and then he helped me after to take the outside decorations I had up for the Thanksgiving holiday, then he helped put the greens and lights around the arbor for Christmas. We had a wonderful day. On Friday, Penny and I were invited to come to Jeffersonville where my niece Samantha Royer lives, her mother/my daughter...Veronica was helping her prepare a Thanksgiving Dinner for the Family.

She was expecting her brother Tyler and Family to come up from Mass. And they arrived on time as they had planned to eat dinner about three, we joined in with them and enjoyed our second Thanksgiving dinner. There were two ladies celebrating Birthdays and special desserts were made for Alicia Elkins her special day was 11/24, Veronica was celebrating a little late as her special day was 11/22.

I talked with Connie McFarland and she had all her 5 children and their spouse's, her grandchildren and great grandchildren making a total of 17 in attendance, just one family that live in Texas were not here to be with us.

Today, November 26, Our Church Service was prepared and completed by John Gorton bringing his message entitled "Have You Seen The King." He shared his Thanksgiving Day with his Family coming together and enjoying celebrating his BIRTHDAY on 11/25. He showed us the picture of his B/day cake his wife had made for him, decorated to look like a turkey. Note: Next Sunday December 3, the beginning of Advent Season, Rev. Purvee is coming to do his last service with us with communion. Welcome to Join Us!!

A reminder of the huge Craft Show that is scheduled for December 9 at 9 am-3 p.m. will be held at the Montgomery Elementary School Gym.

Happy Birthday to: Ethan Mercy, Micah Niles-Racusin 12/5; Charlee Crowley 12/8; Lynda Cluba, Judith Derencourt 12/9.

**What smells the best on Thanksgiving Day? Your Nose. **What does a lame turkey say? Wobble-wobble. **What do sweet potatoes wear to bed? Yammies.** What do you call a sad cranberry? A blueberry. **. That's all the jokes, hope I got a little smile out of you. Have a nice week..M.L.T.A.

P.S. Tonight is the last day of the rifle deer hunt season, I checked with Jolley's Store here in town and Amanda said there had been 50+ hunters had reported getting a deer
