

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOVEMBER 27, 2022

11/27. Another cloudy day with a little sunshine now and then, looks like it could rain any minute. Even though it was up to 50 it did not feel it. Maggie has put her beautiful decorated wreath on the Fuller Bridge and her little flower arrangements on each side of the bridge. I was just heading home from helping Maggie as she had asked for my help; when a car pulls up and the lady gets out to take pictures of the bridge with its wreath lights on. He was beside the car and I stopped to talk with him and then she joined in. They were from Southern California, and out finding Covered Bridges and Montgomery is known for them. He said they had been in Vermont before and they just loved it here. They were going to meet their son in Stowe, he was coming from N.J. to have some family time. They were very nice.

11/27. Today was our Special Greening Service at our Church, the Congregation all took part in readings and helping to decorate. The Christmas tree was fully decorated and when the decorating was done all the lights were turned on, the altar rail, and the Christmas tree with its beautiful star on top. Our organist Patrick Evans played during the whole Service, it was all so perfectly done and Thanks to John Gorton for all his help in wanting to do this Service for us. The Congregation sang Happy Birthday to John as his special day is 11/25, he had celebrated on Thanksgiving Day with his Family. Merle told me today that there will be a Christmas Eve Service and a Sunday Morning Christmas Service.

11/24. Thanksgiving dinners were well celebrated and enjoyed by many in the neighborhood. Gila Domina joined her daughter Ruth and husband Jim Smith. Maggie had her two children Kelly and Clay come for dinner. Penny came up and joined us, as she has not been in the house for over a month, being careful with so many different germs around. Saturday Afternoon Veronica came over and Penny came up seeing it was so nice out we could meet outside and visit. It was very enjoyable.

Brooke St. Onge Boissonneault and her husband Bryant are temporarily living next door in her Grandmother's home, Lorraine St. Onge. Brooke went down to St. Albans and brought her Grandmother home for the Thanksgiving Dinner that she had prepared for the Family. In attendance were Donna and her friend Bob; Steve, Lisa and their son Scott and Kristen and their son Weston; Artie; Randy, Stacey and their Children Madison, Thomas and Alex. It was a wonderful day and we had plenty of nice sunshine, hoping everyone had a very Thankful Day.

Reminder.. There is going to be a huge Christmas Holiday Sale with numerous Vendors coming to sell their items, at the Montgomery Elementary School Gym on December 10 from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Happy Birthday to: Ethan Mercy, Micah Niles-Rascuin 12/5; Matt Cennamo, Charley Crowley 12/8; Lynda Cluba, Judith DeRancourt 12/9.

*A woman is taking a shower, all of sudden the door bell rings, she yells, who's there. He says a "blind man" well she's a charitable lady. She runs out of the shower to open the door. He says, Where do you want me to put these blinds, Lady? * This is all for this Month, doesn't it seem I say that often as the months go by so quickly. Do enjoy and have a nice week.. M.L.T.A.
