

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, 10, 2023

On Thursday 12/7.. The members of the quilting Circle enjoyed a holiday luncheon at Bernie's; eleven lively ladies decked out in the color of red, spent two hours at Bernie's enjoying an adult beverage along with a delicious lunch to celebrate another great year of quilting. We welcomed a new member that will fit into our group beautifully. One lady shared a quilt that she had made years ago and it was very special. There was much talk going on and loud laughter a sign of us having a great time. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year was in our hearts for each other.

Saturday, 12/9 Penny and I attended the huge Craft Show that was held at the Elementary School Gym. There were vendors from all over coming with beautiful home made crafts, food, several stitched items such as quilts, pot holders, knitted hats & mittens, beautiful Jewelry and hand painted cards, maple products just to name a few. We had fun visiting with many of our friends before returning home.

WILDSIDE OF LIFE: Saturday while out getting the mail, I couldn't help but notice two young hunters had got their deer. Liam Walker and his friend Isaac Lumbra had Liam's Dad Trevor Walker go and pick up their deer, and they were parked in the driveway at Walkers. They seemed to be very proud of their deer, both were doe. Then on my travels to and from town the corn fields have been littered with turkeys feeding.

12/10..It's Sunday and John Gordon officiated our Church Service today, his message was entitled "Prepare The Way Of The Lord." Once the service was completed, we had a small Thank You presentation with delicious refreshments, to Thank John Gorton, Merle Van Gieson and Patrick Evans for their roles in our Sunday Service. Linda Elkins made her special Cheese cake cup cakes with strawberry or blueberry toppings, Lois had made donuts and purchased cider and then we had a variety of cookies, coffee and or tea. It was a wonderful fun time and we all Sincerely Appreciate these three fellows for sharing their talents with us. THANK-YOU!!!!

12/24..The Montgomery United Methodist Church will have its regular Sunday Church Service at 8:45 a.m. and our Christmas Eve Service at 5 P.m. We Welcome You All..

**What do you call an obnoxious reindeer? Rude-Olph. **Why. Don't crabs celebrate Christmas? Because they are shell-fish.**What did the beaver say to the Christmas tree? It was nice gnawing You. ** God Bless have a wonderful week. As I write this there is a huge snow storm headed our way for tonight and Monday. Take care and do not over do if you have a lot of shoveling to do. M. L.T.A.
