

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, FEBRUARY 12 & 19, 2023

2/7. The 500 Card Club met at the home of Therese Begnoche and she had prepared delicious treats for the afternoon snacks. Marge Cummings was away and she had Brent Godin sub for her and he also had high score 3230 and second high was Debbie Chauvin with 3000, 5 horses was won by Sue Peters, and low score was Sue Wilson with 1610. There won't be a second game this month. Sue Peters will host the March gathering at her home.

2/12. Merle Van Gieson prepared the Sunday Service and officiated with his message entitled "Divorce And The Challenge of Righteous Living." Following the Worship Service everyone went down to the Fellowship Hall and gathered around the table to go over our 2022 Annual Church Reports that are completed and put in a booklet with beautiful front and back covering that are done by Linda Carpenter. Everyone received a booklet and they go through the booklet and if there are a need of changes to be made it would be at this meeting. Then there was a Pot-Luck luncheon that everyone anxiously were ready to eat, everyone bring in a delicious hot casserole, salad, rolls, desserts and something to drink..milk and or cider. Everyone went home with a full tummy and if you didn't it would be your fault as everything was delicious. 2/19.. John Gorton came and officiated the Sunday Worship today and will be here again next Sunday, Come and Worship with us.

2/19. As most everyone knows by now that our Son Frankie has passed away, leaving us all with such a tragic loss. We have been so blessed by all our Friends, with phone calls, Sympathy Calls, Emails, Hugs, Casserole Dishes and Flowers. Please know everything is appreciated and We Sincerely Thank You!! Frankie's wife Karen has had a Private Memorial Service on 2/17 at the Peabody Funeral Home in Derry N.H. as they were the ones in charge of all arrangements. A Spring burial of Frankie will be held in May at his parents Lot in the Montgomery Village Cemetery.

A little News from our Local Residents that have put together a CORNHOLE TOURNAMENT..All proceeds are being donated to our Montgomery Elementary 8th grade class trip to DC . The next Cornhole event will be on Feb. 26, at the School Gym from 3-5 p.m. They draw for teams at 2:50 p.m. This Winter they have plans to host a total of 10 events, 5 completed. Remaining dates are..3/5; 3/19; 4/2; 4/16 and a season ending Cornhole Tornment in April.. Come play and help us help the 8th grade class!! (New Players Welcome)

Another Event: Out of Hibernation, The Magic of Pooh A Flower Show will be held March 3-5 at The Champlain Valley Exposition Building in Essex Jct., Vt. The Montgomery Elementary LEAPS Program Children have been working on a project to enter in The Children's section of this event. Good Luck to you all!!!

Birthday wishes: Barbara Burns 2/22; Morgan Daybell, Grace Lanphear 2/24; Alexis Fletcher 2/26; Cordy von Conta 2/28; Colby Tanner 3/1; George Roberts 3/2; Elyssa Fletcher 3/3.

Anniversary wishes to Lyndol and Lila Elkins 2/28.

The older generation..We celebrated last night with a couple of adult beverages, Metamucil and Ensure. If I'm ever on life support machine, unplug me and plug me back in and see if that works. Bringing this to an end with M.L.T.A. Have a nice week..God Bless!!