

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, FEBRUARY 2, 2020

First of all I want to Congratulate Elle Purrier, the story in last week County Courier was truly a remarkable story of this young lady. I know she has the support of her Family and Friends here in town. Good Luck Elle!!

It was nice having our daughter's Veronica and Penny come Saturday afternoon . Everyone was feeling better and wanted to come home and we had a wonderful visit. Penny came and had Sunday dinner with us and then we had a little project we worked together on and that was nice, a case where two heads were better than one.

The Nimble Thimble Quilting Circle met at the lovely home of Therese Begnoche on Thursday, Jan30th with eleven hardy quilters. Each lady was bringing their own sandwich and dessert; Therese made a hot spinach/leek soup for everyone. She also had lots of tidbits to enjoy throughout the rest of the afternoon. Needless to say after all that food, quilting was almost an afterthought. Show-N-tell was fun as usual. Four beautiful Sunshine Quilts were delivered to Lutz's for his wife to distribute. The group did make progress on the "Story Teller's Quilt for the Catholic Church raffle. We almost need to meet more often in the winter months to keep up to date on our activities.

It was sad reading the Obituary this week in regards to Brian Crane, Our Sincere Sympathy to Andy and DiAnne Crane and their Family and Friends. God Bless you all.

Jim and Ruth Smith were afternoon visitors this week at her mother Gila Domina.

 I just read a book on marriage that saystreat your wife, like you were on your first date; SO once we finished dinner I dropped her off at her parents house. It has been a beautiful afternoon with nice sunshine,SO, I guess that means the Woodchuck see his shadow even up in our neck of the woods. The weatherman said it was going to be a cloudy Sunday, Wrong this time. That was good as we all love the sunshine. Have a good week folks. M.L.T.A. This Is February and this is one of my favorite months..Love is in the air..Valentines, chocolates and flowers everywhere.
