

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, 2//23/2020

What a beautiful Sunday afternoon, so sunny and warm, and the snow banks have gone down about a foot or more. As I start this column it is starting to cloud up a bit. Penny stopped by to have her father put some oil in her sidebyside. Nothing like the help of good-o-dad. This dad loves to help out..always did, remembering when we had five kids home and each had a bicycle to repair or tires to be blown up every night when he returned from work..The good old days!!!

2/23 The Montgomery Quilters "Nimble Thimble" met at the home of Therese Begnoche . Once lunch was complete and they were all filled up, a short meeting was held and then were ready to start on their quilt "Story Teller" but the afternoon went by faster than the sewing machines, plus their laughter and chatting was a big part of it also. But they will get it done and it will be beautiful. These ladies are so talented with cutting up all that fabric and then sewing it back together, Congratulations Ladies to all your wonderful works of ART.

This is getting around to that time of year that the United Methodist Women will be accepting good clean clothes for our Spring and Summer Sale, it is scheduled for Saturday, May 2. Please call Lois at 326-4651 if you need more info. We will be accepting Spring and Summer clothing, jewelry, shoes, pocket-books, books and some toys. Leave on the Church Steps.. PLEASE DO NOT LEAVE BROKEN ITEMS. Thanks to all that donate!

Ruth Smith came by Saturday afternoon to visit her mother Gila Domina.

Here we are at the end of our second month of this new year, and Marching right into another, should be a month for sugaring weather, but from of the news I have heard there has been new maple syrup already made.

Happy Birthday to: Colby Tanner, Paulette O'Bar 3/1; George Roberts 3/2; Elyssa Fletcher 3/3; Robin Houle 3/4; Sandy Bowman, Prudy Ryea 3/5; Jodi Walker 3/5.
