

Lois with the Montgomery news, April 14,2024

4/14..It's Sunday, and our Church Service was done by John Gorton preparing the Bulletins and officiating the service; bringing us a wonderful message entitled "We Are Now God's Children." John mentioned the bright sunshine coming in the stained glass windows so beautiful. I found a Hymn while waiting for Patrick and John to arrive, that I thought sounded like a nice Hymn for Mother's Day and John knew it, and then Patrick played it for us. We plan to use it on Mother's Day May 12.

Kathy and Howard King help her brother Gerald and his wife Cheryl Jewett celebrate their 55th Wedding Anniversary on April 7 and also Gerald's 80th Birthday which is 4/18. It was a nice get together.

Continuation of the Solar Eclipse. As you all know I did not send out my 4/7/24 news until the following day, I waited until after the Eclipse. I have talked with several people this week in regards to this spectacular event, everyone was excited about how well they could see it as it was happening, awesome, spiritual, spectacular were just a few words used. Then on the local news there had been many weddings taking place. The pictures that were taken by my son-in-law and daughter were things I missed, as I came in to do the News once the street lights were back on. The pic they sent me of the diamond ring was breath taking it was so beautiful. Penny watched it all from the very beginning to its ending. She said something I will never forget, it was so exciting and historical.

4/9.. The 500 Card Club met at the one of Sue Wilson's home with Nancy Martinson as the April Hostess, she had prepared the snacks for the afternoon. It was a warm sunny afternoon and everyone was enjoying their special time to chat and catch up on what's going on with each other. It was finally time to add up their scores, high score was Sue Peters with 3100; second high was Anita Woodward 2930; low was Debbie Chauvin 1430; most horses went to Therese Begnoche with 2. Subs were Brent Godin playing for Marge Cummings and Stacey Gregoire for Sue Cherrier. Sue Peters will plan to have the May gathering at her home 5/14.
