

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, APRIL 20, 2025

4/20..HAPPY EASTER...This was Holy Week we just finished. I went on the Maundy Thursday Service with the 4..Points Rising Church Service in Highgate joined them on Zoom, also joined the Sheldon Good Friday Service that was on Zoom. John Gorton, and Phyllis Archambault were in attendance with Minister Matt Enzler who officiated the message, each person took part in the scripture readings. It was truly a wonderful service. Thanks to everyone participating. Today, our Easter Service was prepared and officiated by John Gorton entitled his service "He Arose" it was a beautiful service and our Hymns were all so amazingly done by Patrick. Thank You, John and Patrick.

4/10..Sue Peters had her Book Club come to her home for the evening to discuss their books, on the latest that they had read. The books were done by Chinese writers, therefore Sue went and purchased Chinese Food for refreshments. There were about 6 in attendance that came and had a wonderful evening.

4/16..The Bowling was called off today, there was a snow storm in the area for the day. Jay Peak area got an abundance of new snow and were able to have people come and enjoy Spring skiing a little longer. The TV weather reporters went to take pictures and show it on at News time.

Did I mention in last weeks News, the flag had been stuck up in the tree for a week on the park. Frank E & Maggie E. pulled it down & branch to.

The new flag is up on the Village Park, Dean Scott brought one up this last Wednesday evening and Thursday morning 4/17, Frank Elkins with a little help from me put the new one up. I have kept the part of old one that was hung up in the tree, it is hard to believe how twisted that fabric was in the branch, it was so twisted and ripped, the flag, it had to be replaced. 4/20..My daughter Veronica came over this afternoon to visit and bring Penny and her mother a beautiful Easter card that she had painted especially for us. I showed her the piece of the flag that I saved and she agreed it was unbelievable how twisted that fabric was, could hardly pull it apart. My daughter is just about to leave as I am finishing this to get mailed out.

4/19..The Montgomery Charity Egg Hunt and games were held at the Recreational Center Saturday afternoon. The forenoon weather was not very promising with the early rain but it did clear up by afternoon and the Show went on. SO, I missed it all..I got over tired here at home and needed a time of rest. SO sorry, as I had intentions of going, but just didn't make it. I'm sure Izzy and her helpers had a well planned event and everyone had a wonderful time. Happy Easter to everyone that went and donated a food item to the new Food Shelf.. Thank You!!!

Happy Birthday to: Delaney Smith, Kira Guild 4/27; Declan Potvin, Wayne Jewett 4/29; Barry Domina, Cheryl Jewett 4/30; Madeline Senesas 5/1; Kylan Gendron 5/2; Brielle Hardy, Violet Begnoche 5/3.

Laugh line: . Jim was headed out of town to do an errand for his wife. He is going right along when suddenly a rabbit jumps right out in the road. Jim tried to avoid hitting the rabbit, but once out of the car, he was heart broken, he had killed the Easter Bunny. He started to weep and a nice young lady stopped to offer him help. He said this was an accident the rabbit ran out into the road so suddenly I tried not to hit him. Now he is dead.. She said I have something in my car that might help. So she goes to her car and comes back with a spray can, she sprays the rabbit thoroughly, the rabbit finally gets up and starts hopping and waving good bye. Jim could not believe his eyes. He asks,,Lady what was in that can? She answers its Hair spray, restores dead hair and adds a permanent wave. The Easter Bunny Arose!!!

Hope you all have had a wonderful Easter Day with Family and Friends. Spring Break this week from Schools around the Franklin County area, DRIVERS beware as Children will be out enjoying the nice weather this week. Stay safe and stay well. Love to All...
