

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, APRIL 23,2023

WHAT THE HECK IS GOING ON? Lois is trying to write the Montgomery News and no one is around, this week the schools are off for a vacation, and so are the parents obviously, some are away in Chicago, N.Y, and Florida. Just hope they are all having a great time away, heard there were snow flurries in Chicago while Montgomery visitors were there.

Today, Sunday 4/23 John Gorton came to fill in at our pulpit with his wonderful Message entitled "Ransomed." He has such a wonderful sense of humor and sings our Hymns so perfectly and His Love for Our God is such an inspiration to all of us. Before our Church Service this morning the Trustee's met and had a variety of topics to cover.

NOTE: May first is the deadline for our local Seniors to apply for the Scholarships being offered by the Montgomery Historical Society and Friends of the Library. Applications are available on the website of both businesses mentioned above.

This is a bit early to mention but you can mark it on your calendar. The Montgomery Historical Society Annual Memorial Day Observance will be Sunday May 28 at noon time at the Village Cemetery. It will include Military Honors by the American Legion Post 42, Roll Call, brief remarks, followed by a wreath laying and refreshments at the Veterans Monument on the Village Park/Green.

Happy Birthday to: Madeline Senesac 5/1; McKenzie McGowan, Kylan Gendron 5/2; Violet Begnoche, Brielle Hardy 5/3; Ken Greco, Wayland Marshall 5/5; Kristen Fletcher, Megan L. Stanley 5/6.

Just for a laugh: How do trees get on the internet? They log on. Why do birds fly North in the Spring time? It's faster than walking.* That's all for this week. Enjoy everyday. M.L.T.A. God Bless!!!
