

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, APRIL 3, 2022

It has been a cloudy Sunday right from the beginning at 28 degrees, No Fooling. Did not do much April Fools joking around this year, only tried to pick on Veronica in Johnson, I called to ask if she could see Mt. Mansfield from where she lives, she said no its to far away, but the day was cloudy and misty rain was falling. What I asked her was, Can you see Mt. Mansfield, as a special report just came on saying there was black smoke rolling up on top of Mt. Mansfield. But she caught right on, and said this is an Aprils Fool joke, Right? I said yes. But she said that is a good one and we both had a chuckle. 4/3.. Our Church Service with Communion was done by Merle Van Gieson and we have been so blessed by his services. Thanks So much Merle. Note: With Easter Sunday coming April 17, we welcome Spring flowers and Easter Lilies to honor or in memory of to beautify our Church Sanctuary. Bring on Easter Sunday or make arrangements with Me to open the Church on Saturday afternoon, my phone # 802-326-4651.

3/31. The Quilting Circle met at the home of Therese Begnoche, as she lives on the Main Road and no back roads to go over as this is Mud Season and anyone having dirt roads know all about the Spring brings the MUD. After their lunch they got busy working on Sunshine Quilts as Shirley Duso had some all cut out and ready to put together, the ones that were completed are going to be sent to Ukraine as Shirley knew of a group collecting items that would help. The Ladies were honored to have Susan Smolinsky visit at this meeting, as she moved last year but will try to make a meeting once in awhile. Susanne LaVallee came for an enjoyable afternoon visit with us. Life seemed so much better at this meeting reports SueP.
