

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, MAY 12, 2019

Do I start with the weather, as it has not been very newsy for most of us, the cool rains, and cold north wind. As I start this column the prediction is for snow showers on the higher elevation for Tuesday.. It was a cool 34 degrees this morning as I headed out to Church. But look at the greenery around, our lawns are so nice and green and the leaves are popping out. David Burns and Melissa have tons of Spring flowers in bloom and they are so pretty as I picked a small bouquet for our Church Service, also our neighbor across the street have a beautiful pink Azalea plant in bloom and I picked a few of them, they were so lovely, after our Church service, we shared them with local ladies, wishing them a Happy Mother's Day.

I hope all Mother's had a wonderful day with their children. I enjoyed having our two daughters Penny, and Veronica DesaintPhalle, our granddaughter Samantha Royer and our great granddaughter Natalie Royer. Four generations. We had a wonderful meal at the PineCone and then came back and sat around chatting before Veronica had to leave. Gila Domina and daughter Ruth Smith were together for lunch and then went to Beaver Meadows to purchase plants. Kelly E. Maxfield and Family and brother Clay Elkins prepared a delicious Mother's Day dinner for their Mom Maggie Elkins.

Friday, 5/10..The funeral service for Florence Vavoudis was held at Goss Funeral Home in Enosburg, and a committal service was held at the Montgomery Village Cemetery with Pastor Bonnie Hovermann officiating.

Saturday, 5/11..Jared McGinley's Memorial Service and Committal Service was officiated by Pastor Paul Somerville of Milton, he was also a friend of the family. The Memorial was held at Pratt Hall with Family and Friends filling the hall. Pastor Paul complimented on this and said it was a real blessing and honor to Jared. His favorite Bible reading he had marked in his Bible was from Matthew 6:34. It was a well planned service and all participants did a fine job in their presentations. God Bless You All..Jared's finally resting place is at the Montgomery Village Cemetery near is step grandfather Arthur St. Onge. (Goss Funeral Services from Enosburg handled all arrangements)

I have a few important dates that I have taken from the Montgomery Elementary School newsletter, some grandparents do not know about. Thursday, May 30, Annual Montgomery Leaps Got Talent Performances at 4 p.m.. Wednesday June 5, Spring Concert at 6 p.m. Wednesday June 12, 8th grade graduation at 6 p.m. Last day of school June 13 at 11:45 a.m.

Happy Birthday to: Matt Tryhorne 5/19; Roselyn Lariviere 5/21; Keishya Brooks Fiore 5/22; Billy Baker Jr., Wyatt Stanley 5/23; Frank Elkins, Kelly Maxfield 5/24; Jeannette Sylvester, Ashley Cota, Flynn Paradee, Helen Thompson 5/25. Linda Carpenter and Family wishing their Mother Theresa Perry a very Happy Birthday as this is a special day for her turning 90 on May 18. Congratulations!!!

Anniversary Wishes to: Tony and Suzanne 5/19.

Son, Mom, yesterday coming home on the bus with Dad, he told me to give up my seat for this lady. Mom..Good, you have done the right thing, son. Son. But Mom I was sitting on Dad's lap.  Have a good week folks..ML.T.A.
