

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, MAY 26,2024

Last week I had omitted the News from the 500 Card Club that was played at the home of Sue Peters, she had snacks for everyone to enjoy while playing. The afternoon scores were as follows, high score Brent Godin 3630; second high was Denise Baker 2750; low score was Debbie Chauvin 1320; and four horses went to Anita Woodward. A wonderful afternoon was enjoyed by everyone. The June gathering will be held at the home of Carmen Scott on 6/11/24

5/26..Our Church Service was prepared by Merle Van Gieson, and officiated by him. We are having a beautiful sunny cool day. During our Joys and Concerns I requested that we sing Happy Birthday to my Son Dale, and it was done. A good day to be outside. Penny is planting her garden. It's almost lunch time, I believe we will have pizza today. That sounds good to me, something quick. My igloo is really cool today, we have the back screened door open so the air flows through here pretty good. The two kittens have full run through the house up and down. They had a tiring day Saturday chasing a huge fly that got inside. They do not stop until they have it killed. They had a special guest come to meet them this forenoon. Our Church Service got out a few minutes early and our organist Patrick Evans has been wanting to meet them, So I invited him in to meet Benny and Sunny. They were quiet and observing.

After our luncheon, I had a call from Elsie Saborowski, asking if I knew of someone that would take her left over Lawn Sale items. I called around for her and the locals that usually have taken things, said No as it's hard to get rid of clothing. IT was recommended to put clothes in the needy barrels in Burlington. Penny and I went up to the sale after I had talked with Elsie. It was clean up time at the Grange Hall. SOO, someone was there to talk to a bout the Prom.

There were a few ladies sitting outside under the tree at the Grange Hall, I introduced myself. And said I needed to get a little news for my column in regards to the Prom that was held last night on 5/25. Nicole Woodworth a Committee worker on this event, jumped to her feet and said Lois I have wanted to meet you. SO that was a good start and she filled me on on the Prom event by giving me a neat poster. MONTGOMERY PROM 2024, "Birds of a Feather Flock Together". Live Music By MAL MAIZ. The doors opened at 9 pm and the place just filled up with the People coming for their PROM. This has been a tradition for years and many thought last years prom was the end, but a committee wanted to keep it alive as so many truly enjoyed this Special Evening of the People's Prom. Thanks Nicole for sharing this news with me. I know my nieces came up every May to this event from Massachusetts, just loved it. Thanks to all that worked on making this a successful event once again.

5/25, Miss Drew Boissonneault enjoyed her first Birthday Party with Family and Friends here at their home in the Village.

5/24..The blue tarp was removed from my leaky chimney. The old chimney has been taken down. New roofing will be put up on a later day.

Happy Birthday to: Silas Mullin 6/2; Emma Bott, Marty Vallender 6/3; Jimbo Schley 6/5; Ingrid Presler, Ann kneten 6/6; Tyler Barnes, Sue Peters, Gabriel Gendreau 6/8.

Anniversary Wishes to: Mike & June Abramowitz, Isaiah & Kristen Fletcher 6/2; Keith & Kara

Godfrey 6/5; Mike and Denise Mercy, Larry and Tina Kneen. 6/8.

This is Memorial Weekend a time of Remembering Our Soldiers that gave all. I had saved these, clippings from a paper I received, to use for this occasion. 1. It is the Veteran, not the preacher, who has given us FREEDOM of Religion. 2. It is the Veteran, not the reporter, who has given us FREEDOM of Press. 3. It is the Veteran, not the Poet, that has given us FREEDOM of Speech. God Bless all that served and are now serving to keep us the land of the free and the home of the brave. As we celebrate Memorial Day PLEASE fly your flag.. Love to all.
