

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JUNE 11, 2023

6/11, A beautiful Sunday has been given to us to get outside and enjoy the warm sunshine, work in the garden and Penny and I are happy to see our seeds are sprouting through the ground. This nice soaking rain was a help to the soil and with this sunshine to warm the ground it's just perfect. It was a wonderful day to be outside and Penny and I went to Johnson to sit in with Veronica at an outside Craft Show, where other vendors came and sit up to sell their things. There was live music provided, Pizza baked right there to serve it nice and hot, and an ice cream truck with various flavors to cook you off, lemonade, and lots of friendly people.

Our Sunday Service was done by John Gorton and his message was entitled, "The Unknown Path." There were a few more in attendance today and we like that very much.

Its nearing that time again to think about doing something for the Montgomery parade that is being planned for Tuesday, July 4. The Parade will start at noon time from the Parking lot at St. Isidore's, on Route 242. Parade entries are welcome, old cars, animals, crafty creations, etc. You can sign in by calling Peg Doheny at 933-8561. Following the Parade the Fire and Rescue will have a delicious Chicken Bar-B-Que at the Rec. Center. There will be ice cream, Family fun and live music with "The Old Man Garage Band" from 1-3 p.m. Sounds like a lot of fun, and it is..Do not miss it..

Happy Birthday to: Connie Sheltra 6/18; Lindsay Snider, Wyatt Stanley 6/20; Linda Carpenter 6/21; Lila Elkins, Billy Baker jr. 6/23.

Anniversary Wishes to: Morgan & Beth Crane-Daybell; Tim & Sam Murphy 6/21.

When does a joke become a Dad joke? When he becomes APPARENT. Holy Mackarel, You're one great Dad. No trout about it, you totally kick Bass. Sure you are a clown sometimes, But you are a hip cat-fish too, in tuna with the times; without you my life would be crappy. The whole family would flounder, cod go on but long story short, You're the greatest Dad ever and that's no fish story. HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!! This coming Sunday June 18. Have a nice week Folks..M.L.T.A.
