

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JUNE 18, 2023

6/18 Today Sunday its Father's Day, Merle Van Gieson planned and did the Church Service for us. Our Organist Patrick Evans played "This IS My father's World" and "Faith of Our Fathers" to open and close the service. Merle had his message entitled "Resist Temptations." Birthday recognitions of Randy Smith and Lila Elkins. The weather remained overcast and cool, after a rainy Saturday.

6/13. The LEAPS after School Program ended their year with a "Variety Show." Let me tell you there is a lot of good talent coming up. Thanks to Principal Sandy Alexander and Lisa Baker for their time in getting these Children together and having them perform what they are good at. Mr. Hoh the music teacher enjoyed playing "You Ain't Nothing But a Hound Dog," with the Children on their Ukulele's. It was great!! There were young children singing, a few dancing, a comedy, make-up challenge, and the Ukulele Group.

6/13. The 500 Card Club met at the home of Sue Cherrier, she had prepared many delicious treats for the afternoon to help themselves too. Subs for the afternoon were Stacy Gregoire playing for Carmen Scott; and Sandy Brown playing for Debbie Chauvin. Denise Baker had high score 2640; second high was Sue Wilson 2300; low score was Sue Cherrier with 810 and Nancy Martinson had most horses 2. It was a wonderful funfilled afternoon.

Reminder the Montgomery Farmer's Market will start on Saturday July 1 from 9:30 a.m. – 1 p.m. here on the lawn of the Historical Society Pratt Hall.

Also July 4th get your float or old car ready for the Parade that will meet at 11:30 at St. Isidore's Parking lot on Route 242. Then following the parade there will be a delicious BBQ Chicken dinner provided by the Fire and Rescue Crew..Plus there will be games, live music, ice cream during the afternoon.. Don't Miss it.

This past weekend June 17 & 18, was the Montgomery Center for the Arts (MCA) Fundraiser held at the Red Barn Studio, 32 Fuller Bridge Road, next to the United Methodist Church in Montgomery Village. The art works of Michael Domina were on sale and 50% of proceeds will help toward restoration of the MCA. There were more than 75 pieces of framed art for sale which will continue at the MCA through the month of July. Art goers also enjoyed live music and delicious home goodies both days of the event. Michael and friend Ernie stayed with his Mother Gila Domina during the weekend. Sunday evening Michael, Ernie, Gila and sister Ruth and her Husband Jim Smith went out to eat at Bernie's Restaurant. Inspite of the rainy Saturday and cool temperatures there was a good turn out each day.

Happy Birthday to: Abigail Paradis, Dylan Baker 6/25; Joshua Potvin 6/26; Alex Kolva 6/ 27; Merle Van Gieson, Porter Sorenson 6/28.

Anniversary Wishes to: Randy & Stacey St. Onge; Bobby & Patti Anderson; Eric & Brittany Remmers; Mike & Linda Carpenter 6/25.

**Hope you all made your father feel special today.* When does a joke become a Dad Joke? When the punch line became apparent. When does the punch line become apparent? After the delivery.** I told my Dad he should embrace his mistake today. He gave me a hug.** That's All Folks. Hope you enjoyed your week and the new one that is coming along. M.L.T.A.