

Is this really so, the last week of June? The months come and go so fast and that means July 4th is soon to be here. The greatest little parade and the July Celebration right here in Town. Come and join in on our Parade, just meet at St. Isidore's Church Parking Lot on Route 242 on or before 11:30 a.m. and following the Parade the "Fire and Rescue's Unbeatable Chicken Barbeque" will be ready, ice cream, family fun during the afternoon, Live Music by "The Old Man Garage Band." If more info is needed contact Peg Doheny at 802-933-8561. All of this is happening on Monday, July 4th, here in Montgomery, Vermont, Parade starts at noon time.

6/25. A fun day was had at the Alumni Golf Tournament, held at the Enosburg Falls Country Club on Friday. Every year, Maggie Elkins, Bernard Ducolon, Norman Larose and Ronnie Ducolon, make up a foursome and have a grand day of fun. Bernard, Norman and Maggie graduated together, with the Class of '61. Even the weather was perfect.

Today 6/26, Our daughter Veronica and her daughter Samantha Royer planned a family get together for this day to celebrate Father's Day, Birthdays, and Anniversaries for our Family that have special days during June. Our Son Dale and Pat were up from Mass, Jayden Royer was home on leave from the Air Force in Mexico, Shane Royer was home from College and his girlfriend from Rhode Island, Papa Lumbrina turned 86, Samantha 40 and her daughter Natalie was 16. It was extremely hot but luckily we found shade at the Cajun Snack Bar in Lowell and then we all went to Eden Lake and had a wonderful place in the shade where we all enjoyed desserts before departing.

On Friday July 8th, the 14th "Annual Wine and Cheese Silent Auction" will be held at Phineas Swann Bed and Breakfast starting at 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. Local donations of Craft items, Jewelry, Art, Business Gift Certificates, etc. Come and enjoy this fun evening, all to benefit the Town Library. A wonderful evening of fun.fun.fun.

This missed last week's column, The Snow Shoe Lodge and Pub hosted a successful, "Pretty In Pink Breast Cancer Fund Raiser," on Saturday June 19, in conjunction with Mimi Magyar who will be doing the Susan G. Koman three day 60 mile walk in Boston later this year.

Wayne and Terry Van Gieson arrived late Sunday evening to come and give his Father Merle a helping hand while he recovers from a fall. He is doing ok, and showing his strength of good will. The old saying, "Can't keep a good man down." Merle is a person that believes in his vinegar and honey remedy for good health. I know there are others that believe that also. What ever works..Right? We miss you at Our Church Service and so Thankful for John Gorton to come and fill in. This Coming Sunday July 3, Rev. Bill Neil will come and do our Church Service with Communion, our Church Service starts at 8:45.

July 8..The "Wine and Cheese Silent Auction" will be held at Phineas Swann Bed and Breakfast on Main Street in the Center starting at 6 – 9 p.m. There are many items that are donated, like crafty items, Jewelry, donations of Gift Certificates from local businesses, etc. Come and Check it out..to Benefit the Town Library.

Happy Birthday to: Colleen Pratt, Taylor Fletcher, Mary Tryhorne 7/3; Hazen Cota 7/4; John Kneen 7/5. Bryan Rodger, Sara Chauvin 7/6; Therese Begnoche 7/8; Robert Gendron, Gloria Sheltra, Noah Getty 7/9.

Happy Anniversary to Dave and Tracey Brown 7/7. Reminder of the First Farmer's Market will begin here on the lawn at the Historical Society on Saturday, July 9 starting at 9-noon time.

Quotable sayings: Grandchildren don't make a man feel old, it's the knowledge that he is married to a grandmother that does. This is all for this week, ending with M.L.T.A. God Bless!!