Tuesday morning I had plans for the day but those plans changed SO I quickly made other plans, Sonny and I went over to visit with Roberta Martin and her granddaughter Danielle, as she was up visiting from North Carolina. Danielle will be returning Thursday. Also I had messages from Jim Townsend this week as he had a gift for me, and finally we did meet, Tuesday afternoon, He said he enjoys reading my Montgomery News and knowing that I played cards, he had some beautiful luncheon plates to give me. So kind and thoughtful!! I sincerely appreciate his gift and enjoyed our visit. Thanks Jim!!

This past Tuesday afternoon Alex St.Onge came by as I had mentioned I would need some help cutting down some of the bushes that were getting over grown on the fence line. His grandmother Lorraine St.Onge enjoys the view down street when she sits on her porch and by having the over grown bushes cut down would be pleasing to her. Alex came by with a friend Wyatt Marshall and we got the bushes trimmed and Alex loaded them on his sideby side and took them away. He asked his grandmother before leaving if that was better and she said it was much better. Alex, has grown up so much in the last year and I enjoyed being out there with the boys so very much, what a good worker and so strong.

I have an email from Sue Wilson and she wants to Thank Roger and Mary Garceau, John Kuryloske and Bob Cummins for hanging of the new Flags throughout the Village and Center. Thank You so very much.!! They are so lovely and such a Welcoming message on them.

June 24th, The Quilting Circle met at the home of Cheryl Heneveld where they enjoyed their lunch and meeting before going to her barn where all the Quilting takes place. To date they now have 14 Sunshine Quilts completed of their goal of 25 for the year. They enjoyed Show-N-Tell and then they got to work on Sandwich Holders..a new project, for carrying your lunch. It was a good fun and everyone enjoyed the gathering. (Thanks SueP)

Today 6/27, Sonny and I went to Johnson and picked up Veronica, and from there Veronica did the driving to Bow, N.H. where we went to visit or Son Frank and lovely wife Karen. They had prepared a seafood casserole dish and a delicious sauce to accompany it, veggie and garlic bread. Frank and Karen have purchased a beautiful home there in Bow, N.H and they were thrilled to have us come and give us a grand tour. So, I missed the Sunday Worship Service here and Thanks to Merle Van Gieson for filling in for Pastor Bonnie, and Thanks to Linda Elkins for filling in for me. I hear it was very good.
