

6/29..It was a busy day here in the Village, with all the Vendors coming to the Farmer's Market and then the ones coming to buy from them. The One Man Band.. Papa Grey Beard's music was welcoming and enjoyed. Also a fellow from Northwest Access Television came and interviewed all the vendors and will be edited and come on the Northwest Access Station in about 3 weeks. The Village Park was busy serving people that came for FREE clothing, a group of Christian People from Essex came to offer Free clothing to all that had a need. Jennifer Ricker said that this was one of the best days that they have enjoyed serving so many people. It was a blessing for them in Giving and a Blessing to everyone that came and helped themselves.

I had a surprise visit from my sister Maureen Patterson and her husband Ed, they are up from Tennessee staying at their camp in Duxbury, Vt. Our daughters Veronica and Penny came and we all had a wonderful visit.

6/25.. I accompanied Linda Van Gieson to St. Albans; we stopped at the St.Albans rehab and visited our friends Betsy Snider and Charlotte Deuso.. Both ladies were surprised to see us and we had a nice visit with both of them. Betsy is in hopes of returning home soon. After we left there we went to Walmarts for a few things before we had a bite to eat at the Pie-in-the Sky.

Cordy von Conta has had her sister Sarah Kennedy from Vancouver, brother David and his wife Janet from Arizona, and their Cousin Tom and Cara David from New Jersey visiting.

6/28..Maggie Elkins and two classmates Bernard Ducoln and Normand Larose and completing the team of four was Ronnie Ducoln all played in the Alumni Golf Tournament at Enosburg Country Club. The weather was perfect and they all had a wonderful time.

The Scholarship Committee of the "Friends of the Montgomery Town Library" had a hard time this year choosing a winner. So both candidates who entered came out winners! They are Henry Haase who graduated from Stanstead College and is Boston University bound, and Claire Ellis who graduated from North Country Union High School will attend Boston College in the Fall. Thanks to the Committee, Jessica Dillner, Esther Lichti, and Kay Kuryloski who had this hard task of choosing a winner. (Thanks to June Abramowitz for the news and her humor)

On July 10th Endangered Alphabets speaker will be at the Public Service building at 6:30. There will be a display of this mans work at the MCA for month starting immediately afterward brought to you also by the Friends of the Montgomery Town Library and The Vermont Humanities Council.

Happy Birthday to: Ann Voos 7/7; Theresa Begnoche, Stephanie Brunton 7/8; Robert Gendron, Gloria Sheltra, Noah Getty 7/9; Kaitlyn Sylvester, Ann Lavery 7/10; Barbara St.Cyr, Stacey Ryea , Keith Sampietro, 7/11; Matt Crowley 7/12; Pat Carpenter, Debbie Chauvin, Susan Delear 7/13.

Anniversary Wishes to: Dave and Tracey Brown 7/7; Jon and Allison Witherspoon, Jamie and Doris Buttendorf 7/10; Tim and Colleen Pratt 7/13.

**Reminder of ole sayings. I put the thingamabob inside the whatchamcallit, turned the doohickey and whateveritis , still didn't work. Any ideas?*** **Divorce Lawyers.. Ditcher ,Quick and Hyde.*** As I bring this to an end for the last day of June, we just had a down pour and the streets were like a river running down by. Then as fast as the storm passed by the sun is about ready to shine again. Have a nice week..M.L.T.A.