

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JULY 11, 2021

What a gorgeous weekend, with plenty of sunshine and a much need for some rain. The corn fields seem to be doing well. On Saturday morning when I went out to water the flower barrels, I noticed a lot of debris in the road and down the sidewalk in front of the Historical Society Building. There had been an accident around 2 a.m. that hit a parked car and there was just so much broken plastic. I had a local neighbor call a person on the H.S.Board and they came down, I had swept up most of the debris and the men scooped it up and took it away. The small pieces of broken plastic was sharp and with the first day of the "Farmer's Market" to begin, children often go barefoot and those pieces of plastic could hurt if stepped on. I did not know what happened but many living close by did witness the accident. It finally became 10a.m. and the Vendors were set up ready to sell their products, some crafty ideas, fresh veggies, maple products, fresh homemade bread,cookies and scones, Breezy Acres and meats that are grown on their farm here in Montgomery. Linda Van Gieson and I went down to make a few purchases, and while we were there, Therese Begnoche was there with her son Armand from Montana and his Family. On July 8 it was her Birthday and she said she was surprised with a celebration from her family and friends. From the Farmers Market they were going to visit a farm, as the small children wanted to see a baby calf. I tried to get hold of Therese as I am writing this but no answer..I am very sure that there was a great ending to visiting the farm as Children love a farm. I am a witness to that also, I grew up on a farm and I married a farmer's son and all summer long we had visitors from our out of town relatives.

Today John Gorton from the Sheldon U.Methodist Church came up and gave the Message he had prepared, filling in for our Pastor Bonnie Hovermann. We feel blessed to have someone that talented to come and share his faith with us. Thank You so very much..God Bless you and yours..

Last night 7/10 the boys down street had their annual fireworks display. There were several people that gathered around the park and many children were with their parents. The children were so excited and having such a good time, I think seeing one another was more important than watching the fireworks. It was so pleasant hearing their laughter and squeals. As I am writing this it is clouding up but the temp is around 80, and almost 4 p.m.

Heartfelt Sympathy to Sister's Lila Elkins and Pauline Domina in the loss of the their Sister Laura of Keene, New Hampshire. These girls grew up here in Montgomery children of Gordon and Lola Garrow of Hill West Road. (Hold on to your memories as they will always be with you..from all of us your Church Family and Friends we offer our Love and Prayers)

Two painters paint a house and hand the customer the bill. The customer notices that there is no charge for the paint, just labor. The customer says, you guys did such a good job, but why aren't you charging me for the paint? The head painter looks at the man and says, Don't worry about the paint, Its on the house..  Enjoy the week..M.L.T.A.
