

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JULY 19, 2020

Yes, I am feeling much better, and thanks for the calls and nice remarks, glad that you enjoyed my Vermont poem, in place of getting some news for you. It has been hard as most people are obeying the guidelines put out by our Governor and Doctors; and staying home. There is not much going on around, that is for sure, yesterday 7/18 there were 4 cars that came by and parked near the Village Park and we noticed that their license plates were from Massachusetts. They all seemed to know one another and went out walking with their dogs. We also had a couple come during the early evening and enjoy eating their lunch they had brought along. We usually have the bikers that come by, and they enjoy our beautiful park, it always look so nice and well groomed. The borders have not opened up yet and therefore, that is where most of the bikers were from Canada. My brother Colin stopped for a daily chat with us on Saturday. We reminisced about our growing up days in Fletcher, and how much things have changed, So, he wants to pick me up some day and go over and walk around to see if we can find the huge rocking rock, truthfully I do not remember it, but often heard my brothers speak about it. That should be interesting. Our daughters were here for a Sunday visit and we went through several photo albums, what a hoot that is, memories of yesteryear, the funny things we did and wore; Time flew by, and it was a time of a lot of laughter, which we all needed.

The Montgomery Conservation Commission had decided to honor Carol McGregor's memory by having a bench and marker placed, and a lilac bush planted, at the Village Park. The bench was already in place, but some members of the Conservation Commission got together on 7/15 to plant the lilac bush. A lilac bush was chosen because of Carol's love of lilacs. The marker will be placed soon. (Thanks to Joan Hildreth for the news)

Sandy Bowman is enjoying a visit from her son Joshua and grandson Declan Potvin, the visit went by much too fast.

Sally Newton was surprised on Saturday as she thought she was going to Kentucky Fried Chicken or some place she has enjoyed and her son John had heard from one of their Bridge Club Members that they were meeting over in Barton area for a Surprise 90th Birthday Party. It was truly a wonderful surprise and she enjoyed every minute of it. It has been hard on folks that have enjoyed getting out for fun events, and she and John have missed playing Bridge. Sally received many beautiful cards and appreciated every one of them.

Happy Birthday to: Matt Snider 7/26; Tosca Smith, Lynn Caforia 7/28; Mark Brouillette, Al Fernald 7/29; David McGinley 7/30; Lois Babbitt, Sara Domina, Tess Beemer 7/31.

Happy Anniversary to: John and Sharon Youland; Jake and Michelle Lagault0Webster 7/29.

**I'm going crazy at home ,confided Billy to his second grade classmate. Its my parents, if I make a noise they spank me, if I'm quiet they take my temperature.** A small child tells it like it is..My Mommy has gone to the Supermarkup.** This is all for this week..Telling it like I see or heard it..M.L.T.A.