Catherine O'Neill recently attended a Mass of Christian Burial for her brother-in-law Joe Bertorelli in Nahant, Mass., while there our Family members enjoyed seeing and sharing memories with one another. It was great to be out and about with Family and Friends after being isolated during this pandemic.

7/29, The Quilting Circle met at Edith Dunlap's home in East Fairfield for their July meeting; WOW, what a lovely trip over; Edith and Richard are located in a most rural, relaxing, nature loving area imaginable. We were greeted with beautiful flowers, birds singing and gracious people. The rain followed us ladies right into the house. After our lunch, we worked on a few of one of the members projects. We have completed 14 sunshine quilts of our goal of 25. It was a terrific afternoon, one or the other kept us in stitches.

Tosca Smith and her Family and Friends celebrated her Birthday with her at the home of Misty McCartney's home on the 31st of July, her actual date was on the 28th. Lots of fun, memories, laughter and good food were enjoyed.
