

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, SEPT. 13, 2026

Monday, LABOR DAY, Yes, it was busy here, our big wash day, and Grammy Penny had her Grand daughter over night and enjoyed every minute of it. Skylar was on medicine as she had an ear infection, but has gotten all better, she was 7 months old on 9/7/2026. She likes holding her own bottle, and seems to be changing every day. 9/8/it was back to school, and that is an enjoyable day for everyone. 9/9..It's Winter Bowling Team starts after the Summer team just finished. The Winter Teams do not all come during the summer, they take a break. Sue Peter's stopped to pick me up just before noon time and we were off to meet with Elsie and Carol in the Center. Today, the Bowling Alley was packed, as everyone was coming to play. We were all happy to see one another,enjoyed the hugs, and then we were off to start Bowling...The Turkeys had 3 other players join them. It was back to normal, the humor and fun. A great new beginning.

9/8.. The 500 Card Club met at the lovely home of Anita Woodward, an afternoon of their birds up on the Hill. They have feeders around to feed all kinds that come. Anita, had prepared many kinds of snacks for the afternoon, for the ladies to help themselves. Ending scores high went to Sue Cherrier 3030; second high was Sue Peters 2730, most horses was a tie Connie McFarland and Kathy Ross each had 5 and split the pot. It was a beautiful sunny afternoon, with a chance of rain threatening as the day went by.

Thursday, our Senior Dinner at the Dairy Center for September. Lise Gates menu was a huge Veggie salad, coleslaw, green beans, chicken-biscuit-gravy, and a huge bowl of assorted fruit and chocolate cake . My Nieces came up from Highgate area to join with me, and that was very nice, Melissa was unable to be with us, we missed you. We had another couple from Sheldon, Raymond and Sarah Reed at our table also and we chatted and made friends, but my niece Marlene and Sarah were acquainted with one another, they had not seen each other for awhile, so they had a nice visit. The tea-cup table had lots of nice items to choose from, some one had made nice pot holders, or could be used for a dish cloth. We all left with full stomachs, and hope to see each other in October on the 8th.

Friday..9.11..a Day of reminiscing, the worse disaster ever to hit the United States Of America. The TV stations most of them had video's of the Twin Towers coming down, while the firemen were on their way up to help, the towers were fast coming down all broken, killing so many people. It was truly a heart breaking day, and for all the video's that were taken. They just look so real like it just happened. Yes, I remember where I was, Penny and I were cleaning house over across Vincents Bridge, when I heard that an airplane had crashed in to the Tower, and soon another one, I said to Penny something is going on, airplanes are flying in to the towers...we did not finish cleaning we came home and watched what was happening on TV, we did go back later, as it had to be done for the weekend. What gets me most..these criminals were trained to drive the airplanes right here in America.

Friday, 9/11..Lois Babbitt had a wonderful visit from her Granddaughter Kerri Fleming and Family from New Hampshire. Lois was pleased to meet her two Great Grandson, ages two and four. The parents might be back up during the ski season to have their boys try skiing as its best to try while young. Lois said they helped out with a few jobs that were helpful to her before they left to go home. It was a short..but sweet..very appreciated visit.

Saturday, 9/12..Lynda Cluba had scheduled this day to have Family and Friends come together in Memory/Life Celebration of her beloved husband John Cluba. For the ones that wanted to share special moments and enjoy a feast prepared by Tosca's Catering Service. There were many that shared special times they had with John and his twin Brother Frank. It was truly a remarkable get together, and people that traveled from a far. I was blessed to meet Lynda's sister Karen Bocker from Iowa, her brother Dave Pittman from. Connecticut, and Mike Pittman from Utah was present , only I did not meet him. They all had their Children with them, and Sunday Lynda will get some time to spend with all her Family. This was a wonderful Cluba event and John would have been so F proud to have this honor. Rest IN Peace, Our Dear John!!

Sunday, 9/13..Our Church service was prepared by John Gorton entitled his Sermon "Life Changing Grace." Merle & Linda Van Gieson do the print outs of our bulletins, and bring them to Church for everyone. Will Moses stopped in to give me a hand to put the Hymn numbers up, and had brought in a box of Squash freshly picked from his garden, to share with the Congregation. Will has been volunteering to help down at the Sheldon Food Shelf, if there were squash left over Will wanted John to bring them to the Food Shelf. It was done!!

Happy Birthday to: Caitlin Smith, Angie W. King 9/20; Debby Malloy, Joanne Lanphear, Landen Ryea, Misty McCartney 9/21; Joy Bosley, Anara Bosley, Ursula Carroll 9/23; Nancy Combs, Zachary Scheffler, Patricia Martell, Adam Brunton, Kristen Baker, 9/24; Penny Lumbra, John Wilson, Nancy Cousino, 9/25; Heather Mercy, Jacob Baker 9/26.

Anniversary Wishes to: Thomas & Whitney Nelson 9/22.

 This was on A. F. V....A Grandfather was sitting at a table with his young granddaughter, she had a loose tooth and was a bit scared to have it pulled. He wanted to show her how it was done, SO, he put a string around a piece of something white put it in his mouth. The string was hanging out of his mouth and he told his granddaughter to pull, she did, but had to pull harder, and harder and she pulled that thing out of his mouth, and scared her half to death, she was so puzzled, as to what it was. I can't help but laugh, as it was so funny, that poor child, but it did not show any more than that.

2. Mother, I don't think the man upstairs like Jonny playing his drum. Father...Why/. Because he gave johnny a knife and asked if he knew what was inside the drum. 3, Auction..A place where, if you are not careful, you'll get something for nodding, . Hope you enjoyed the funnies...Have a good week. LOVE TO ALL