

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, SEPT. 20, 2026

9/11-13..Jesse Jones daughter of Tony and Jody Jones of Montgomery Center, married her partner of sixteen years Justin Wernecke of La Crosse, Wi. Saturday September 12th at her parents home in Montgomery Center. A rehearsal and dinner of smoked pull pork was held at the Jones house September 11. The wedding was on the 12th at the same location, followed by a reception at her Brother Quenten's home in Jay, Vt. A pancake breakfast was provided for all the guest Sunday morning. The wedding was attended by a large contingency of Friends from Germany, where Jesse and Justin spent 15 years, and Family from Wisconsin as well as others. A marvelous time was enjoyed by all. CONGRATULATIONS JUSTIN AND JESSE!!!

9/14 I went to St. Albans on business. I am going to mention this in my Column as there are people that are not aware of Monuments for Cremated Burials. I know of people that wanted their Ashes not buried, WELL, they do not have to be buried. When you pass away, and your body is cremated, it can be saved until your spouse passes and the two of you can have your ashes put into one monument. There are many kinds available..I was not aware of all of them.

9/15..A busy day down at the Montgomery Historical New Building Site, lots of Construction Equipment was entering and I could hear the equipment at work, they were getting the new foundation opened up. When I went down later in the afternoon, I was amazed at the size of the opening. There has been lots of Line workers in the Village this week, Construction workers, our Town Road Crew, have been bringing in sand for use during the winter months, Avery has been busy with his Lawn Mowing Crew. Busy week here in Town.

9/16..Sue Peters came by just before noon time to pick me up, as we were heading to the Bowling Alley once we met up in the Center with Elsie. Elsie was driving us today. The Bailey threesome were playing next to the Turkeys today. It was a fun day, and when the game was done for the day, John Bailey had one the quarters for the day.

9/17..It's Thursday, A nice cool start to the day, I got my wheelbarrow and cutting scissors and went out side to cut down the ferns, hydrangea and rose bushes that all grow in this one place. I got them all cut down, I had the wheelbarrow full. Later in the afternoon, I went back out and cut down hosta's by my sidewalk, It was a good day for me, as there were linemen working near by and if I had fallen, someone would have been near by to help me. It's weird how tired one gets being bend over and cutting things down. I'm over half done. The ambulance was in town early morning for a long time, I thought one of the linemen got hurt. There were two on the park, when I went over to ask, they said no one was hurt, it was at the house on the corner. The ambulance left, no one was transported.

9/18..I got the wash done and answered my emails and I thought us girls were going to the Cajun today, I checked with Lois B and she said Yes, I am picking Connie up around 10:30 and if you want to come along will be down to get you. I was ready when she came by and we went over route 58 the scenic route, BOY had the foliage changed, so beautiful. The reds are brilliant, and in Lowell going to the Bowling Alley one side of the Hill was pink. I do not remember seeing just pink..but seeing was believing. The Cajun will be closing for the season September 27, the owner said they are trying to use up what they have and cannot be sure they would have your favorite on hand Sunday. What a wonderful couple/family that own this place of business and they all work at it.

9/20..Our Sunday Service was prepared by John Gorton and officiated by him also, entitled his Sermon "Draw Near To The Lord". This was the 17th Sunday after Pentecost, there were 13 in attendance today. Merle and Linda did the copies of the bulletin for everyone. I think everyone should know our Church Conference is scheduled for October 17..Time ?.. Today, during Church I was not feeling well, When service was over, I went down stairs and was down in the Fellowship Room, to try and relax. Linda and Merle were still at Church when I came up and was going home, Linda said I thought you had already gone home. I walked home and took Aleve and now as I am writing up the News, I feel better, I ate some hot soup and had a nap, let's hope that pain is gone.

Happy Birthday to: Jonny Walker 9/27; Linda Van Gieson 9/28; Sam Murphy, Brian Vogel 9/30; Connor Walker 10/1; Shane Royer 10/2.

Anniversary Wishes to: Gary & Bobbi Jo Lumbra 9/29; Cedric & Joanne Lanphear 9/29;

1. I have a few good jokes about unemployed people, BUT none of them work. 2. I was sent a joke about a vacuum cleaner. But it just sucked. 3. Where does Batman go to the bathroom? Bathroom! 4. What happened when a strawberry got run over crossing the street? A Traffic Jam!!!  It is a rainy afternoon, and much needed for many living plants still surviving. Have a wonderful week folks. Love To All.