

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, SEPTEMBER 8, 2024

9/8..The sun is shining after showers throughout the night, and 50 cool degrees this morning. John Gorton planned and officiated our Sunday Church Service, his sermon was entitled "How Shall We Then Live." John had asked Sandy Bowman to assist with the Bible reading of Psalms 125. And Lois to read the Bible reading from Proverbs. Let's all pray for sunshine this week so John G. Can get his HAY crop in for the season. (Just trying to help John)

Coming Event: Jazz Concert at Pratt Hall on September 13, 7 p.m. Jon McBride "Big Easy," New Orleans -Style Concert, with all band led by Saxophonist Jon McBride. Our own Community Percussionist Jacob Rucusin will be joining in the band. Tickets $15. At the door. Sponsored by The Historical Society And Friends Of The Library.

The new Food Pantry and Thrift Shop opened this week, I stopped in Saturday during their sale and was amazed at how many things they had collected already. I wish them the best as Tosca told me the people needed it. Just remember this is for the Community and giving nice things to donate will be gratefully appreciate; as things that are no longer in good use to you, probably won't be to others either.

My Nieces Pamela Harris and Priscilla Hammond came by Saturday afternoon for a visit with Penny and Aunt Lois. We enjoyed being outside on the front porch as it was nice and sunny and that is what was recommended so we could be with Pam's beautiful well behaved German Shepherd dog Bentley. Pamela and husband Scott have found a wonderful dog that they have adopted into their life and coming with them from Florida. This dog is so gentle with everyone that comes to their home for a visit or where ever they take him.
