

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWSM 12.6.2020

I was very surprised being woke up early by the sound of the snow plow coming by. YEP, it has been snowing throughout the night. I guess like everyone else, we had almost 4 inches blowing around with the cold north wind. It makes it look like Christmas with all the beautiful decorations. The decorations have really been an up lifting time for the Children. Today while on our Sunday Church Service, a few of us from Montgomery area were getting snow and down around St.Albans and Milton area nothing. But underneath where the plows had been through it was icy, very slippery. It's a very dark dreary day so far and will soon be getting dark, its almost 3:30 and I have my news almost done.

11/30.. Maggie Elkins, Susie Ewins and Gracie Jones from Essex (Only she was on Zoom) came together at their sister Joanne Kane's home in Berkshire to have an afternoon of fun, with Joanne to celebrate her 90th Birthday, which is December 1. On her actually date she would be celebrating with her children. Joanne will soon be leaving to a warmer climate like Florida.

12/1..IT seems weird as I write this, the first day of December was such a warm mild day. We had a day of some sunshine, clouds and a little rain shower. How many got to see the bright double rainbow that arched over the Village? There were probably other rainbows that we didn't see but Sharon Myer on her evening weather forecast mentioned a rainbow. I got to finish putting my decorations outside it was just so nice to be outside.

12/4.. On Friday Rosaire Robitaille passed away, so many will miss him. Rosy was a remarkable person as I knew him. There isn't a thing he wouldn't do for you, if he could. He has sold Christmas trees at his home for years and I have heard people say, Where can I get my Christmas tree NOW? He loved working in the woods and bringing dry fire wood to many people for years, he would always check with us, when we were burning wood, to make sure we had a winter supply. He was friendly with everyone and will be missed by so many of us. R.I.P. he will be with his family members that have passed on before him this year; losing his wife Rachel, a grandson James Jr., and others. Yes, this year has been hard for families and worse by this Covid-19 virus. He leaves behind his Family and Friends, We want them all to have faith in the everlasting, and take comfort in the LOVE from all of us, We will keep you in our Prayers. God Bless!!

Happy Birthday to: Joan Ramey, Sara Robitaille 12/15; Shirley Jacobs, John Youland 12/16; Ann Cote 12/17; Barbara Walker, John Newton, Mary Roberts, Safina Poirier 12/18; Louise Celantano, Denise Baker, David Burns, Philippa Coville 12/19.

Anniversary Wishes to Klaus and Ann Voos 12/19.

This weeks Joke.. One day this last week I asked Sonny if he would like a chicken pie, he said yeah that would be something different, I asked him to cut up the veggies while I prepared the crust and he did and I made the crust, prepared the filling of mashed potatoes and all the veggies Sonny had cut up. Put it in the crust and then into the oven, baked it, and prepared some left over gravy for the top; while we were eating this delicious pie I said "WHERE IS THE CHICKEN" I had forgot to add the cut up chicken. There was enough for two meals and I added the chicken to the gravy for the second helpings. We both had a laugh..hope you will too. God Bless!! M.L.T.A.
