

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, 11/18/'18

Its time to get started on my column, just came in from going with Maggie Elkins to put a couple of Christmas wreaths up at the Longley Bridge and she has the Fuller Bridge decorated and both are so beautifully done and getting everyone into the spirit. Having all this snow cover I guess, gets us thinking how close the holidays are upon us. Sure has been a stormy week, and then for the sloppy wet stuff that has frozen is worse than having rocks all over the place, been very icy slippery going today to walk around.

11/9..Howard and Katy King welcomed 20 members of the Tetreault clan into their home often known at the "Deer Camp" for many during the deer hunting season. Sorry to say that no one got a deer, but everyone enjoyed their time over the weekend. Coming from Florida were Gary sr., Gary Jr., and Gary Jr's two sons Brandon and Ryan Tetreault. Coming from Connecticut were Alvey Blier Jr., and sons Alvey III, and Evan; Nephew Gregory Holmes. Also Napoleon Tetreault Jr. and sons Napoleon III, and his sons Benjamin and Jared Tetreault; Dennis Tetreault Jr. and son Keegan and John Tetreault Nephew of Gary'S. (Thank You so much for coming with her) After they arrived back home from attending Church most everyone went to the Dairy Center Restaurant for breakfast; then the ones from Connecticut went home except Napoleon Jr. and John Tetreault; the ones from Maine Carlton and Jason, they all stayed and left for home on Monday 11/12..also Gary Jr., Brandon and Ryan went back to Florida. Our place seemed so empty to have it back just for the two of us. 11/17 Surprise, at 9:45 p.m. Napoleon Jr., Poly III, and Jared Tetreault returned to go deer hunting with Gary.
