

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOVEMBER 25, 2018

I'm saying it, this is the last column for this month, as miserable as the weather has been, this month seems to have gone by faster than any other to me. Today the temperature is mild, sloppy with the misty rain that keeps falling. Hope this does not freeze, it will be another mess. Maybe it will just snow. I have cleaned the ice and Fall decorations off my tree stump and decorated a little bit with my little Christmas tree and other things that were handy. Do a little each nice day.

I have an email in regards to the "Christmas Wreaths" being done by Elsie Saborowski, Marijke Dollois, Patty Perl, Peggy and Mike Brislow, Ted Carrick and Sue Wilson. They all gathered and put new lights and bows on all the wreaths that will be hung around the Center and Village. A Special THANK-YOU, to these folks for their time and energy in bringing beauty to our town for this Christmas Season.

I'm going to include some events that are posted around town. 1. On the 8th of December there will be the 5th Holiday Craft Show held at the Montgomery Elementary School starting at 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. Avery Stanley will be there selling his Christmas trees also.

2. On December 15 "Holiday Happiness" will be held at the Historical Society starting at 11 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Remember the horse drawn wagon rides that were enjoyed last year..WELL, they are coming again, there will be face paintings, Kurt Valenta , Mr. K Crafts at this event, to top it off there will be Hot cocoa and cookies. YUMMY!! (I haven't said that for awhile have I, Earl)

This will be rather a short column this week, I want to end hoping everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving with Family and Friends. Penny helped Sally and John Newton prepare Thanksgiving dinner and Sonny and I enjoyed the meal with them. Thankfully, as cold as it was we did not have far to go. We lived to see the coldest Thanksgiving day ever recorded and then the day after also. I hope we can get a few good days, and Maggie Elkins, myself and David Burns have plans to put lights on the park tree. WE ARE IN HOPES!!!

Happy Birthday to.. Luke Scheffler 12/2; Betty Moquin, Lynn Drevik, Samantha Ryea 12/3; Jennifer Diette, Ethan Mercy, Micah Niles-Racusin, 12/5, Ellen Coolige, Matt Cennamo, Charlee Dennis- Derancourt 12/8.

What do you call a turkey the day after Thanksgiving? LUCKY. Why can't you take a turkey to Church? Because he uses fowl language.* * Hope everyone had a thankful day as they enjoyed their Thanksgiving Feast. Many folks traveled from town while others came here from a far, I was surprised when Joshua Potvin stopped by as he saw me outside to show me pictures of his 18 month old son. I used to baby-sit Josh, he now lives in Florida, his mother Sandy Bowman had her children and grandchildren here for the holiday weekend, they took a nice hot meal to Cordy von Conta. God Bless her !! Take care and remember if you have news and want to share it..give me a call, drop it off to me, or email it to me..
