

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, NOVEMBER 8, 2020

What a gorgeous Sunday, we can all enjoy this weather, had our little winter squall and now enjoying our Indian Summer. I did not attend our Church Service today on Zoom, it was at 11 a.m and by that time of the day I am thinking of getting dinner, as we eat at noon time, we have our big meal of the day and eat lighter at night time. Penny came up with her granddaughter Bella (german shepherd) and she enjoys coming to our home as well, she makes herself at home.

No, hunting news from anyone, not much seen in the wild, only we witnessed several turkeys eating in the corn field across from Rosaire Robitaille's property. Sonny, Penny and I called Rosy a week ago and talked with him at the Rehab facilities there in St.Albans. it was nice hearing his voice and of course he wants to come home. This pandemic has caused so much hurt for families, can't go and visit, and this causes extra heart ache to people wanting to see their family and friends. So Sad..

This week has been busy for me and I have had help from Merle and Linda Van Gieson and Frank and Linda Elkins and Ivan Sutlief. Friday, Merle drove his truck to pick up veggies and things that are delivered once a month in St. Albans to benefit our Food Pantry. They did not have a big variety this month but we got what we could handle at this time. On Saturday from 11-3 there was a clothing give-away at the Baptist Church parking lot in Richford. A Christian Group from Essex came with their van filled with clothes hopefully for all sizes. I'm told if there is something that someone needs at our Church, that to let them know and they will put out a call for that need. This is wonderful to have that contact with another Church and its very much appreciated and I am so thankful.

I am going to sign off here and hope everyone has had a wonderful week with this nice warm weather.

Happy Birthday to: Roger Chauvin, Madison St.Onge 11/15; Anwyn Jones 11/17; Harvey Chaffee, Alysa Vallender 11/19; Mack Bolog, Marlee Sylvester 11/20; Jeff McGovern, Natasha Baker 11/21.

Two painters finished painting a house and hand the bill to the customer. The customer looks at the bill and notices there is no charge for the paint. The customer says to the painters, You guys did such a good job, Why aren't you charging me for the paint? The head painter looks at the man and says, Don't worry about the paint, IT'S ON THE HOUSE. Much Love to all. God Bless America.
