

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JULY 28, 2019

7/22..Did anyone notice the Palm tree and pink flamingos in town Monday morning near the Fuller Bridge? A little bit of Hawaii was the theme Maggie Elkins chose for her special luncheon with her sisters, Grace Jones, Susie Ewins, and Joanne Kane, they were met outside as they arrived, each one was given a lei to wear. Maggie had a very special luncheon prepared ahead of time so she could have time with her sister's. They played a few hands of 500 and enjoyed a pina-colada or maybe two. They had a very enjoyable day and the Hawaiian atmosphere was much like the weather there. I witness Maggie's decorations and they were absolutely beautiful!! Later that evening Maggie's granddaughter Emma Roger came for a visit and spent the night, She worked daily and came to spend three nights this week with her GRAM.

7/23.. Five members of the Green Mountain Ruby Reds and one guest went to Jay Village Inn for some fun time. They swam awhile, ate awhile, swam some more and ate some more, it was a fantastic day to be outside. They had the most delicious dessert , Peanut butter pie. Later they all walked down to the Jay Country Store and each one found something to purchase, (naturally we are women)came back and sat down and enjoyed some friendly talk, before heading home. Another Church event is scheduled for Aug. 22 at 7 p.m.. Ernie and Jason Couch are returning to do a concert for us. This is wonderful Christian music..plan to attend, at the United Methodist Church here in Montgomery.

7/26..Kenny and Emily Deuso came by to have a chat with his cousin Sonny Lumbra and Yours Truly. They are camping on Hill West.

7/27.. A Surprise First Anniversary party was given to David and Nicole Domina of No. Carolina, they were up visiting family and friends. Kathy and Desiree Pudvah, planned and gave them a surprise, which was held at the Recreational Center. A wonderful time was enjoyed. Later Ruth and Jim Smith came to visit her Mother Gila Domina at her home in Montgomery Village, as they had attended the Surprise party for David and Nicole.

As I finish up this column oue house is getting dark, maybe a storm coming in. We had a little rain earlier and like my husband says, enough to make the grass grow. Penny came up and had lunch with us and showed us all the pictures of the boat she was on this week at Lake Champlain. It was a lot of fun and the weather was so perfect to be out.

**Question: "Why did the Israelites wander forty years in the desert wilderness?" Because even way back then, MEN would not stop and ask for directions.** Have a good week folks.. August begins this week. Does not seem possible..But it is what it is..M.L.T.A.
