

What A wonderful week of nice weather once it warmed up from the cool mornings, there were frost in some area's even here in the Village, not at our place yet. I think its from all the trees that keep it away. Whatever, it is okay, it will soon get here. The Farmer's Market ended this Saturday 9/21 with 12 plus vendors coming. My sister-in-law Roberta Martin and daughter Priscilla Hammond came by for a short visit, they had been down to the Farmer's Market to visit a few minutes with Veronica deSaintPhalle and Penny Lumbra, then our daughters came by for a visit before Veronica had to return home.

9/14. The Family Reunion of Gaston Begnoche Parents was held at "The Windjammer" in Burlington, Vt.. Therese Begnoche and sister-in-law Carmen Scott were among the 20 plus members that attended. Therese said its mostly cousins now, and one cousin from Connecticut has done a lot of research/genealogy and made up booklets for each family in attendance. There were family members from Pa, Ct. and Vt., they had a very delicious meal and enjoyed visiting with newcomers.

9/21. Maggie Elkins attended her Enosburg Class Reunion graduates of 1961 today, that was hosted by Pamela C. Colburn at her home in Enosburg. There were 15 classmates in attendance with their spouse or friend, making a total of 27, everyone bringing Pot-luck to share. Everyone had a wonderful time, and such a splendid day, the weather was perfect, to be outside.

9/21. The Memorial Service for Winston Lewis was held at the M.H.S. (Pratt Hall) with her Husband Tim Chapin and their children all taking part in the service. Many Friends shared their special memories during the service.

9/19-22: Connie McFarland accompanied her son Raymond and daughters Nancy Benson, and Jane and her husband Joe Sanpetrino to Old Orchard Beach in Maine. The foliage is changing everywhere and they particularly noticed how beautiful it was as they got closer to home from Eden to Montgomery, was spectacular.
