

TOWN OF MONTGOMERY NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2019

April is a quiet month here in Montgomery as far as activities and events go. It seems that all the action is happening underground and in the branches of the trees as new growth, frost heaves, migrating birds, and warmer temperatures prepare to emerge with spring. We can look forward to such events as the pending excitement of People's Prom, the Rec Center's Summer Music Series, end-of-school, and a developing line-up of gallery shows and workshops at the Montgomery Center for the Arts; summer camps for the kids, outdoor music at Jay Peak, and of course the various rummage sales for ample treasure hunting. But for now, thank you for your support of this newsletter; may your suspension be solid and your mud boots sufficient.

-Suzanne

Waldo Finds Himself

WHERE'S WALDO?

A local game of "Where's Waldo" has been initiated. Each month, Waldo will "find himself" sitting somewhere in Montgomery. Starting in April, look for a statue of the character at one of the local businesses and organizations. Can you find him? If so, let the owner of the business know so your name will be entered in a drawing at the of the month for a $25 gift certificate. Have fun!

Look for this monthly newsletter distributed at your local stores, post-offices, and public buildings, as well as online at the official Town of Montgomery website: www.montgomeryvt.us. We want this newsletter to be valuable to the community, so please be sure to offer feedback and content to the Editor, Suzanne Dollois, whom you can email at sdoll.vt@gmail.com.
