12/5.Here it is a little after three and will get started and finish up this week's column. I have been telling folks that Rev. Bill Neil was coming today and do our Worship Service and Communion. He and his wife Faith made it here safe and sound and even though we had snow overnight some places the roads were a little slick. He plans to come at a later date and do another service for us. Our District Superintendent plans to come in January, she has already made a date with us.

12/1.It's the Christmas season and time to decorate our Town. A few ladies from the Community got an early start and refurbished the Wreaths with new lights and bows.
