

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JULY 2023

7/2..Our Church Service was prepared and done by Rev. Bill Neil from Burlington, Vt. There was a good turn out that came to enjoy our service with communion. Rev. Ed.and Judy Sorrell surprised us with a visit and that was a very enjoyable time with them. Judy recently had a Birthday 6/24 and we sang Happy Birthday to her, she and my hubby Sonny shared that day. Rev. Neil gave his sermon entitled, " A Prophet's Reward."

6/29..Nine Members of the Quilting Circle met at the home of Sue Peters for their meeting. They had a lot to talk about, not much sewing went on during June. ShowNTell took up most of their time. The loot from Japan was first on the list followed by boxes of fabric that was gifted to Therese Begnoche. The business was short but very productive. They also Thanked Edith for all the jam she donates to the group. A wonderful afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Sandy Bowman enjoyed 10 days with her children Joshua and wife Casey and their two Sons Declan and Landry from Florida, and they all went to Maine to visit daughter/sister Jill and hubby Eric Schoff and their son Rowan. It was a wonderful time for Mom/grandmother Sandy.

June 30, The Montgomery Historical Society had their Annual Meeting and also celebrated its 50th year of service to the Community. Thomas St.Onge was awarded the Joe and Irene Scott Scholarship during the business meeting. Following the meeting, dinner was enjoyed; and New England Stories told by our Special Guest Speaker, Willem Lange, all taking part under the tent outside.

The Farmer's Market opened up for the season on July 1, at 9:30am-1pm. There were 10 vendors around the lawn coming to sell their freshly made pies, soaps, crafts, veggies, local home grown meats, syrup, jewelry, wooden art, and the Historical Society had things in their tent for sale, etc. The rain stayed away and everyone had a wonderful breezy day.

Happy Birthday to: Robert Gendron, Noah Getty and Gloria Sheltra 7/9; Kaitlin Sylvester 7/10; Stacy Ryan, Keith Sampietro, Barbara St.Cyr 7/11; Matt Crowley 7/12; Pat Carpenter, Debbi Chauvin, Susan Delear 7/13; Stuart Brunton 7/15.

Anniversary wishes to: Jon and Allison Witherspoon; Jamie and Doris Buttendorf 7/10. Tim and Colleen Pratt 7/13.
