

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JUNE 2, 2024

6/2..A cool 46 degrees started out our Sunday morning and it didn't take long to warm up once the sun was shining. John Gorton planned and officiated the Sunday Service with his sermon entitled "What Do We Do With The Sabbath," with Holy Communion. During our Prayers and Concerns I mentioned that my daughter Veronica was picking me up after Church to go up to Newport, to visit my brother Colin Corse, as he had been admitted to Bel Aire Nursing Care. Veronica's GPS was giving her problems and we asked a fellow at the East Side Restaurant if he knew where it was. He gave us the info we needed and went right to it, it was a very well groomed lawn with gorgeous flowers all in bloom. We went inside to find my brother, the lady at the nurses station came to show me where he was seated to have dinner. I was shocked, I did not know him as he had lost so much weight. Right away he was the same ole Colin with his wits and funny attitude. It was their dinner time there so we visited while they were bringing on dinner to the folks, and left to go back for our dinner at the East Side, as when we first arrived there they had a Sunday Brunch going on, dinner started AT 12:30. WE had a wonderful time out, but wish that Roberta Martin could have come with us.

Good bye May, welcome June twenty-four. Our busiest month for events and so much more. Weddings, Graduations, Birthdays and Father's Day. Congratulations and Best Wishes with Love to all I say. June weather is famous for warmth and rain. Little flying bugs to drive a person insane, Please enjoy this month as it goes by so fast. We will soon put those days in our past. * There were many that went to enjoy the Dairy Festivities in Enosburg 6/1. There certainly wasn't a lack of people as there was a crowd everywhere. I found it to be very enjoyable and got my delicious Bar-B-Que chicken..YumYum.

5.26..I have only heard wonderful remarks of last Sunday's Memorial Service that was sponsored by the Historical Society. John Kuryloski took over for Scott Perry, Military Honors by the Enosburg American Legion Post 42, Roll Call, Lying of the Wreath at the Village Park Veterans Monument, Refreshments by Parma Jewett. A Special Thanks to all that took part in making this Annual Event so memorable.

This week just about every day has been beautiful to work or sit outside and enjoy the fresh air. But while out there the breeze is bringing down those big maple seeds and they spin around and around looking like butterflies. Our street is loaded with them. Some call them helicopters but these remind me of a butterfly. Then just as I was coming inside this huge bird flew over and the wing span seemed endless, do not know what it was, just that it was huge. When I explained it to Joe Vallender, he thought it might have been a blue Heron. Joe (Grand-Dad) was across the street caring for his Grandson Hudson while his parents attended a wedding. More wild bird news, The family of geese down at Comstocks little Island have left the area once the three babies were big enough to leave. Penny I call Grandmother Goose kept a daily eye on them, but never disturbed them. Veronica surprised Penny today when she came to pick me up, She had painted Penny a beautiful picture of a pair of geese and their babies. Penny was so surprised and just loves it. Truthfully it's a master piece in my eyes. It's so realistic!!

5/30..The Quilting Circle met at the lovely home of Sue Peters at noon time. I was not able to go early as I had an appointment at that time. Sue Cherrier came and picked me up at 1:20 p.m.and when we arrived at the meeting the ladies were involved with Show-N-Tell. The ladies had beautiful hand bags, quilts for a child, and quilts that were not yet completed, I may not have seen everything, but what I got the biggest education was watching all these different ladies putting a handbag together. We all worked on different parts of a new hand bag, the handles,and the lining all the many parts were sewn, pressed and then Sue Cherrier continued with all the pieces sewing until it was completed, she had a small opening that was needed to pull the pieces out to show on the outside, I call it the birth of a handbag. AMAZING!!! They wanted to get one handbag completed before going home, and by gosh we did, it was so beautiful.

Happy Birthday to..Grady Kennison, Tim Pratt 6/9; Phillip Heimbecker, Ellis McAlister 6/11; Carmen Scott 6/12; Lisa Patterson 6/13; Ivy Betts, Randy Smith 6/14.

Congratulations to Calla Maloney and Jeffrey Bliss, they shared their Happiness with me, and let me know that they were married on December 21, 2023.

*** Why couldn't the gardener plant flowers? He hadn't botany.(bought any). **What do you call a grumpy, and short tempered gardener? A snap Dragon!! ** What part of the plant has the most friends ? The Bud.**. Enjoy, hope the little jokes brought a smile to you. Have a nice week, if you are doing something special, see something different, PLEASE. share your news with me. I would enjoy it very much. Godfrey 6/5; Mike and Denise Mercy, Larry and Tina Kneen. 6/8.

This is Memorial Weekend a time of Remembering Our Soldiers that gave all. I had saved these, clippings from a paper I received, to use for this occasion. 1. It is the Veteran, not the preacher, who has given us FREEDOM of Religion. 2. It is the Veteran, not the reporter, who has given us FREEDOM of Press. 3. It is the Veteran, not the Poet, that has given us FREEDOM of Speech. God Bless all that served and are now serving to keep us the land of the free and the home of the brave. As we celebrate Memorial Day PLEASE fly your flag.. Love to all.
