

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JANUARY 26, 2025

It's Sunday, I am home from a wonderful Church Service officiated by John Gorton, and his Scripture readings were done by our organist Patrick Evans, Patrick is willing to help where ever he is asked. Vivian Elbe had an Administrative Board Meeting right after the service was done. Next Sunday after the Church Service we will have our Annual 2024 Church Reports, have been made into a booklet. Our booklet covers are completed by Linda Carpenter by using a photo that is given her, this year a photo of Martha Lanphear Perry is being used as she was a Sunday School teacher for many years, she celebrated her 90th Birthday last year and we are celebrating her special day by using her photo on our covers.

Monday the 20th Parma Jewett had her January luncheon at the Library Conference Room and had a Meat Pie with a broccoli salad and Key Lime pie for dessert. She had all tables filled with community members to enjoy the lunch. She usually has about 30 that come to eat.

It has been a week of COLD weather, and at times the COLD wind to make it even worse. Wednesday, Sue Peters and I went to the Bowling Alley in Lowell, we were passengers with John Wilson and Sue Cherrier. I kept score for Sue Peters team and another team that was new to me. I did much better this week, kept my eye on the ball. I really enjoy going and meeting new people, everyone is so nice.

Wednesday was also a day for the school bus drivers, buses did not want to start, the fellows at the bus shops were busy getting buses started. But they finally were on the road and the kids were at school, a little late but they got there. I was just reading a short report that this week is supposed to be to be awful, snow squalls, winds can happen anytime, just be aware.

Happy birthday to: Eric Mercy, Leila D. Blanchard 2/4; Janis Hess, Shannon Smith, Ashley Barney 2/5; Ava Walker, Jonny Youland 2/6; Harper. Rae Bredin 2/7; Maggie Elkins 2/8; Patrick Cote, Katja Vogel 2/9.

What do you call a bowling team that gets a lot of strikes? Lightning. Why do bowlers join Unions? They like strikes. * Why is bowling a better sport than Golf? That's all for this last January 2025 News Column, just does not seem possible..but January is winding down down down. Have a nice ending to this month doing nice things that make you happy and others folks toooooo!! Love to All.
