

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, FEBRUARY 23. 2025

2/17..We began our Monday morning with snow showers, & wind left over from the weekend storm. Parma Jewett did not cancel her luncheon she had planned, by noon time the storm had calmed down but was still cold and windy. Parma had prepared a delicious Corn-Chowder, blueberry muffins, and dessert was a brownie with ice cream and hot chocolate sauce. Yummy!! Schools were closed as it was so wild out.

2/19..Wednesday is the day people go Bowling, and I am anxious to go now as keeping score is fun, IF I can keep my eye on the ball. People from town go and I find them interesting how well they are doing, and my eyes wonder, but thanks to Rick and Elsie they keep me at my own station/game. Everyone is so kind and helpful...We do not have the same teams each week, they alternate, therefore I get to meet other players, from different towns, that welcome me also.

2/20..What a day this was, I had been invited by Doris Williams to come with her and two other friends to St. Albans, it was a go, ONLY i was expecting Amerigas to come and fill my tank, I was in the car with the ladies headed out with them, we had not got very far when Amerigas truck was coming into town. Doris brought me back home, I see the truck going up West Hill, I was going to stay home and wait for my delivery which was scheduled for the 20th. I waited and waited and finally the truck came into town, around the corner by the Church, up the street to my neighbor across the street, backed in there, as he got out I was there to ask if he was delivering propane at my house, NO, I said I am scheduled for a delivery, He believed me and said Mame I will be over in a few minutes, he did come over, and I was about to run out of propane he told me, just hearing that it had scared me knowing I was so low and this cold weather I needed heat in my house. He told me, he was sent to fill in this area as he is from Newport. He had to call his boss and report he had to help me. He was very nice and understood my feelings. We had our driveway all cleared of snow the path out to the tanks all cleared, he said it was the best he had delivered too.

2/20.. After the Amerigas ordeal, Sue Peters had been waiting for me to come with her as this was Our Quilting Circle meeting at Therese Begnoche home in the Center. Yes we were a little late, but so were others. When we go early we all bring a lunch and sit around the big Family table to eat and visit. There were 6 when we arrived, we joined right in, then about 1 p.m. it was time for Show-N-Tell, There were many beautiful items that were shown, the lady that writes up the Newsletter also takes pictures. It still is amazing to me, all these little pieces of material get cut up, stitched up, pressed, and sewn together making a beautiful Quilt. Lots of work gets involved from many hands. Love it!!! By the way there were 10 of us once everyone arrived during the afternoon.

Here it is Sunday February 23, on our last week of February. John Gorton came to officiate our Church Service, his sermon entitled "Treating Others." Patrick Evans is recuperating at home from surgery, did not feel comfortable enough to join us, but he has Dr. orders to keep off his foot. We just missed his playing and want him to know that. We used music that CORDY had recorded many years ago, she was going to have surgery and a long recuperating healing and she recorded 8 Church services for the Church to have. Merle and Linda got stuck in their driveway and made it down to the Service just as we were about finished. We were all happy to see them, and knowing they were fine. YES, We had 4 new inches of snow overnight. *A man was sitting on the edge of his bed watching his wife, looking at herself in the mirror. Knowing that her birthday was coming up soon, he asked her what would you like for your Birthday dear. I would like to be eight again. On her birthday he got up early and prepared her a bowl of Chocolate pops and a glass of OJ. Then after he had planned a day with her at the Theme Park, where they rode all the rides, then he took her to McDonalds for a lunch where he ordered her a Happy Meal, with xtra fries and a milk shake. Then he planned on taking her to the movie where Lion King was playing, they had pop corn, soda's before returning home. Once home he said "Happy Birthday""How did you enjoy being 8 again." She said you idiot, I wanted to be a size 8. . He was listening, and he tried to please her..thought it was a great story, hope you enjoyed it also. Have a wonderful week. Schools are on Spring Break. More Children out so drive carefully folks. Keep safe, Be Healthy..Love To All.
