

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, MARCH 23, 2025

3.23..Brrrrr! That cold wind feels like 20 below outside, just walking home from Church. That cold seems to be getting inside now that the snow bank have melted away from the house. It certainly makes a difference. The sun is shining but does not feel like its warming up, at least the temperature is staying the same.. I guess the weatherman said up to maybe the 20's this afternoon. Thinking of weatherman..did you watch Friday nights episode of Gary Sadowoski, leaving Channel 3. It was a wonderful Good Bye show, Gary had so many wonderful humorous things that kept everyone, wondering what would he do next. Yes, I had tears as I remember the first time he came on to do the weather. I find it sad to see people go, when you are used to seeing them every day.

Our Church service was officiated by John Gorton, had zoom for those that could not make it to Church, due to sickness, we had 7 Of our regulars absent today. Our music tapes did not play that we had relied on, in the absence of our organist. Thankfully John can lead our Hymns very well. He mentioned, it will seem good to have Patrick back, hopefully for this coming Sunday. John had prepared his sermon entitled "Come To The Waters."

On Monday 3/17..Parma Jewett had prepared a delicious dinner of corn-beef, cabbage, potatoes and rolls and carrot cake for dessert. It was very nice and very much appreciated. Thanks to Parma and all her volunteers that come to help serve and clean up after.

Tuesday 3.18, Doris Williams and sister Lois Babbitt were going shopping in. St. Albans and invited Connie McFarland and me to come with them. I thought it best not to go as I was coming down with a cold or something..maybe allergies..what ever it was, was miserable and would not want to pass it on. Wednesday, I felt a little better and I did go to the bowling alley with Sue Peters and she picked up 2 more players in the Center. Elsie Saborowski was driving as she had her sister coming along with her, she is visiting from Germany. It was a wonderful afternoon.

Thursday, I went with Sue Peters to Highgate, she had an early appointment to get her doggy Seuz groomed, we had some time to go into St Albans to shop around, and we went into Walmarts, over to Job Lots, and another store near there. It was a busy time for many, as the stores had lots of shoppers. We picked up Seuz anround 11 and he was groomed to perfection..so handsome, and excited we were there to pick him up. We were back home a little after 12:30.

Happy Birthday to: Denise Domina, Alyssa Fuller, Megan Stanley 4/6; Jesse Soule, Jeffrey Donna, Allen Hulbert 4/7; Melinda Hurlbut, Alex St.Onge 4/8; Lyndol Elkins, Rose M. Witherspoon 4/9; Scott Harris xoxo 4/11.

Coming. Events: Sunday March 30.."Winter Tracking Workshop". Will be held at the Montgomery Center of Arts; from 2 p.m.- 4. Eliot Cluba.

Saturday, April 19th, "Montgomery Charity Egg Hunt," from 1 p.m.-4 at the Recreational Center. Games, egg hunt, face painting, tea cup raffle, food, treats. A visit from the Easter Bunny. PLEASE bring a donation of food to help the Food Pantry/Shelf. Don't forget your Easter Basket!!!

1. I tried to catch the Spring fog...But I Mist. 2. How did the birthday cake get wet? It got sprinkled. 3. Did you hear about the brand new broom that just came out? It's sweeping the nation. 4. What did the mop say to the broom? I'm so tired of getting pushed around. This is all folks...and I checked the temp and it's almost 30 degrees, and the sun is shining in my windows..warming up.. Have a nice week and let's hope the sugar makers do well..with the coooler temps. The new snow that came has melted away..more on the way for later tonight. Take care...Love to all.