

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, MAY 11, 2025

5/4..Sorry to all my wonderful devoted readers, I did not get the News out to you until Monday about noon time. I was having help to send out the News a new way. THANKS.. to my Daughter Veronica and Friend Jim Townsend for their expertise help. Monday was not at all usual as my wash day became Tuesday. Tuesday, Lois Babbitt called me to come to Enosburg with her, she had a little shopping to do, then I suggested that we eat lunch at the Dairy Center as they have ChickenNBiscuits every Tuesday. SOO, that we did and enjoyed every bite. There were 4 men that came in to eat and two went to a table behind us, two seem to look around to find a place to seat, I said we have space here just need another chair, and one got a chair and the two sat down with us, in which was very nice. Dennis Heath and Donly Goodrich. Dennis seemed to know several people here in Montgomery, that he was aware of and refreshed my mind as well..especially Rosaire and Rachel Robitaille. Sonny and I were great friends for years with them. He knew Puffer Lumbra and Sonny and I did most of our grocery shopping there and Puffer always had a story to tell me, Just to end the story Lois B. Would like to have Dennis and his wife come this way to meet up with us for a luncheon and visit, there fore we gave him our phone number to call ahead to meet up, his wife was from Cambridge area and we might make connections. From there Lois and I went for ice cream at the Pine Cone and went just for a ride into Richford before returning back home.

5/7..This is Wednesday..Bowling Day.. I go to keep score just to have something to do. David Matthew stopped by to pick me up, as Sue Peters had a dental App't. Once at the Center we met up with Elsie Saborowski, She was going to drive and went to pick up Patty Perl at her home and then we four were off to the Bowling Alley. Once there it was great to have John Wilson, Sue Cherrier, back from Myrtle Beach where they had gone for a vacation. Sue said it was just great weather, they had visits from Family and Friends, John enjoyed going golfing. NO, I do not want to forget Elsie, Welcome back as she was away two weeks in Florida. Elsie plays on Sue Peters Bowling Team with a tall strong fellow Rick Roy. This Wednesday is the Bowling Teams end of the season Pot-Luck where we will all gather to eat and have a fun day.

Thursday..was a scheduled Mother's Day Brunch at the Dairy Center, where everyone that signed up came, the dining hall was almost full, the Country Music was terrific as usual. Welcoming back to our Montgomery Group that meet monthly was Larry L.& Anita Woodard they enjoyed their time at Myrtle Beach as well. Larry was asked to call the numbers drawn for the Tea Cup table of gifts brought in, Thanks to Larry for helping out, his voice carries well through a noisy place, we can hear him plainly. Thanks Larry!!!

5/11. Sunday morning at 39 degrees out...BRRRR!!! I went down to Church at 7:55 a.m. to sweep off the steps and get the lights on before the Congregation started coming. John Gorton prepared the morning. Service entitled his sermon "Do You Believe In. Miracles." Patrick played for the lighting of the Candles an old song entitled "M O T H E R." John later read us the words to the song MOTHER, and had a wonderful Prayer for all the Mother's present and for all others throughout this world. Mother's are a Blessing!!!! I had planned to have a tea cup candle placed in a glass cup for all of us Mother's that come to our Church. I did do it, but had a terrible time finding just pink candles...SOO, I purchased pink birthday candles, melted them and gently put some pink on top of the white, WELL, that was a disaster as the pink was a little higher and when it melted it filled in around the wick suffocating the flame..I tried and MY Friends all knew it and were very gracious and supportive. I hope it It was a Happy Mother's Day for all.

Once home we had planned to leave town around 10:15 to meet up with Veronica and her daughter Samantha at the Cajun for our Mother's Day dinner together. They were there when we arrived at 11 a.m. and went inside to get out of that cold wind, we were out of the wind but the seats inside were cool. As we sat there the place was filling up, had to wait in line at least a half hour to order your food. Just next seating over from where we were seated was an elderly lady of 102 years of age. We all wished her a Happy Mother's Day, she said I come here every year from St. Johnsbury to have my dinner. Her name was Janet Lucas and she mentioned doing deliveries years ago here in Montgomery but I do not remember what was delivered. She was just the sweetest person and so pleasant. SURPRISE..Tyler Elkins, came walking into the place, Veronica's son from Mass., He came to join us and enjoyed dinner and lots of hugs before leaving. Then next to us at their table were Werner/Snider relatives. I told him I have been coming to Lowell with a Bowling Crew, said the Werners built the first place on that property but later burned, and a new building has been built. I remember the fire burning down the building, as when a few ladies belonged to the Red Hat Society, they went there a few times to Bowl. It's amazing when we talk with strangers..they really are not strangers, how close they are with people we know. Yes, they knew the Snider Families all around this area, as I do also. The Werner Country Band and dances were very popular back in my younger days. But we went to Old Hillside in West Enosburg owned by Mrs. Jacob's. That is where I met my Husband in 1957.

Happy Birthday to: Matt Tryhorne 5/18; Syrus Gendron 5/22; Billy Baker Jr, Wyatt Stanley 5/23; Frank Elkins, Kay Kuryloski 5/24.
