

LOIS WITH THE MONTGOMERY NEWS, JANUARY 11, 2026

Here I go with my first Monday of the new year, I fell in my kitchen and have been recuperating from my bruises. Luckily, I was able to walk around, took ibuprofen for the pain, so at least I could manage to move about. But here it is Friday and the black & blues are showing up. Then I received a Jury Duty Summons this week to fill out and send in, I have served on Jury duty years ago, found it interesting. But my one handicap is I do not drive, but maybe someone else from Montgomery might have to go the same day as me. Will see.

I did not go with Sue Peters this week to the Bowling Alley. The usual players were there and everyone enjoys seeing one another as it has been over three weeks, closed down during the Holidays. Hopefully I will go next week, also got a call to play 500 as a sub.

1/11/26.. Our Church Service was Officiated by Merle Van Gieson today in the absence of John Gorton. John is under his Dr.'s care and will need more testing and rest for awhile. We here in Montgomery are praying for you, You are missed John. This week I have boxed up our Christmas decorations, the tree got undecorated by a nice Young Lady here in town..I ended up helping her, as her sister was not feeling well and did not attend school this week. The school bus drops off kids on the Church sidewalk, and I have got to meet them and they helped decorate the tree, and wanted to help undecorate it. It's all done and put away. Thanks to Will Moses for his help and Frank Elkins.
